

GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED TO BOOST FOR HIGHWAY BOND ISSUE

HEADQUARTERS OPENED IN BUCKHOLTZ BUILDING TO CARRY ON CAMPAIGN.

PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHT

County Supervisors Find Sentiment Favors Project; Voters to be Given Full Particulars of Plan.

Organization of the Rock County
Good Roads association has been completed and active steps in the campaign for a bond issue to insure immediate construction of concrete roads have been taken.

George Woodruff, president of the association, C. E. Moore, county highway commissioner, secretary, and J. A. Drummond, treasurer.
An executive committee composed of county supervisors and other men of prestige in good roads projects has been named. This committee is not complete. Every member of the county board has signified his willingness to serve on the committee and will be called on in presenting the bonding plan to constituents.

Open Headquarters.
Headquarters for the association were opened this afternoon in the Buckholtz building, Milwaukee and South bluff streets, and arrangements to put on a whirlwind campaign are well under way.

A meeting will be called within the next few hours to complete working committees, including a speakers' corps, publicity committee and an auto-unit committee.

It is the plan of the association to carry on a campaign of education and as the time is limited it will be necessary to start work at once in order to reach all voters before election on April 1.

Most of the members of the county board are enthusiastic over the prospects of the bond issue carrying. Several called up Mr. Moore this morning and informed him that the members of the county board in submitting the plan to the people have won favor.

It is necessary, it is explained by many supervisors to inform the voters of the plan which will be carried on in issuing and retiring the proposed bonds. It will be the endeavor of the good roads association to prepare a comprehensive plan which will be circulated among the voters. This will be supplemented by meetings in every school district in the rural communities and by mass meetings in the cities.

Plan Speakers' Squad.
As soon as the chairman of the speakers' squad is named a squad of picked men will be started out to put the bond proposition before the public. Moving picture shows will be asked to co-operate with the campaign by showing the short speeches in their places by "Minute Men."

Assurance came from Beloit, Evansville, Edgerton, Milton and other large places that their communities would be organized and covered as soon as definitive instructions received from the officials of the association.

GERMAN DELIVERIES SIDETRACKED IN STRIKE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, Wednesday, March 5.—A German wireless message picked up by a British ship, "Herald," made by General Nudant, Marshal Poch's representative on the joint armistice commission at Spa, because the Germans have failed to repair the railway and industrial and agricultural machinery.
The message explains that German firms constructing the required material have been unable to complete it because of the strikes and that the destruction of railway cars and the destruction of railways near Halle have also retarded the carrying out of the agreement.

ASSEMBLY KILLS BILL TO LIFT SECRECY LID

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Madison, March 5.—The lower house of the Wisconsin legislature voted a bill to repeal the secrecy section of the state income tax law by a vote of 50 to 30. It killed the Hansen measure to repeal the personal and income bill of the state income tax law.
The senate fixed March 20 as the date when it will take up the confirmation of Carl Johnson as member of the state railroad commission.

British Surplus Stocks Range from Tanks to Tacks

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, Wednesday, March 6.— Frederick George Kellaway, parliamentary secretary for the ministry of munitions, gave some remarkable figures in the house of commons today, regarding the work of his department.
On November 11, he said, there were 33,000 separate contracts outstanding which involve a liability of £1,825,000,000. The expenditures of the ministry of munitions during the war totalled £9,195,000. There are large surplus stocks to be disposed of ranging from tanks to tin tacks and from guns to glue. They are scattered over three continents.

Man Who Said "To Hell With Retreating, Let The Germans Do That" Comes Home.

Col. Frederick M. Wise and Mrs. Wise, snapped on arrival in New York on steamer "Rochambeau."

Col. Frederick M. Wise, the man who led the Second battalion, Fifth marines, in the memorable battle of Chateau-Thierry, has arrived in this country with his wife. It was Colonel Wise who remarked, when ordered to retreat, "To hell with retreating, let the Germans do that." His battalion captured 500 Germans and many machine guns at a cost of a 75 per cent casualty list between June 2 and June 5.

GERMAN STRIKE FADING OUT; FAILS TO MEET RESPONSE

Berlin, Wednesday, March 5.—The strike situation in central Germany is unchanged and a renewed effort by the Spartacists to secure the proclamation of a general strike at Dresden and Mueggenberg has failed.

Normal conditions have been restored at Halle. At Leipzig the general strike of citizens as a counter action against the industrial workers is still going on and threatens to complicate the situation.

A leader of the majority socialists informed the Associated Press today that so far the general strike is a failure. It was stated that wherever workingmen banded secretly, the opposition to the strike was overwhelming and that the independent socialists deserted themselves in estimating sentiments among the laboring classes.

The volunteer militia division and a portion of the republican militia which have been supporting the government, have gone over to the Spartacists.
The city of police headquarters in the Alexanderplatz continued today to be the scene of recurring street fights between government troops and armed Spartacists.

Volunteers have constructed barriers in several side streets leading off from Alexanderplatz and continued to plunder the shops in the vicinity. Herr Ernst, the police chief, declared that the strike wave is receding and that police headquarters is amply fortified against any attempt to storm it.

Telegraphers Protest Strike.
Amsterdam, March 5.—Employees of telegraph companies, the post office and big stores at Berlin have resolved to protest against the general strike by continuing their work.

Troops Entered Spandau.
Copenhagen, March 5.—The volunteer corps commanded by General Huisen, entered Spandau, near Berlin, Wednesday and occupied all the public buildings.

House Irish Action Held As Friendly Warning

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, March 5.—Some persons, says the Manchester Guardian, may consider the resolution on the Irish question passed by the American house of representatives as "irrelevant, even as impertinence."

"But," continues the newspaper, "it is nothing of the kind. It has a very direct bearing on the fundamental principles accepted as the basis of peace and it should be regarded not as gratuitous intervention in our domestic affairs, but as a friendly and by no means unnecessary warning."

Ford Plans to Build Still Cheaper Car

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Los Angeles, March 5.—Further details of Henry Ford's plan to build a new automobile at a less cost to the purchaser than any automobile now extensively sold, were published today. The new car will be built at Indianapolis, where it will be placed for economic collection of raw material and distribution of the product, Mr. Ford said.

BARES LACK OF U. S. AID IN RUSSIA

RED CROSS COMMISSION TESTI-FIES AS TO ATTEMPT TO SE-CURE U. S. CO-OPER-ATION.

REQUESTS ARE REFUSED

Government Told That Bolsheviks Would Denounce Treaty With Germany If Help Were Promised.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, March 5.—The Russian Bolshevik government agreed in February, 1918, to denounce the Brest-Litovsk treaty and resume the war against Germany if the United States and Great Britain would assure cooperation in Russia.

Mr. Robins said that despite his efforts and those of R. A. B. Lockhart, British high commissioner, to induce their governments to agree to this proposal, no word was received by March 14.

Col. William B. Thompson, head of the American Red Cross mission in Petrograd, who had been charged with securing money to aid the Bolsheviks, Mr. Robins said, "never spent a dollar for that purpose."

Asks For Propaganda Funds.
In addition to this, Mr. Robins said a request was made for the American Red Cross to contribute an additional million in October, 1917, and a million dollars a month for three months to carry on propaganda in the interior of Russia.

Instead of receiving approval of the project, Mr. Robins testified, the government cabled that a representative of the committee of public information had been sent to Russia to study the situation.

When the committee's representative arrived the Bolsheviks had been in power for two weeks. Mr. Robins said, "The Bolsheviks, the soviet and the reactionaries, and lack of sympathy on the part of the allies for the Bolsheviks, made it impossible for that regime to gain the support of the soviets."

People Back Revolutionists.
Mr. Robins said he saw early during the Bolshevik revolution that the revolutionists were bound to become the real power in Russia because of the unpopularity of the Russian people behind them.

"I told Trotsky," the witness continued, "that I would deal with whoever happened to be in power. I am not a Bolshevik, but I am a realist. I believe in an international revolution which eventually would rid America of the economic situation in Russia could be improved. He was not friendly to America, but he was friendly to the Bolshevik government because its ideas were diametrically opposed to the ideas of the German junker and landlord."

Trotsky Willing To Have Embargo.
At that time, the witness said, the Germans were trying by every means to obtain raw materials from Russia.
He said Trotsky offered to permit the Germans to go to the frontier and enforce the embargo on raw materials going to Germany.

Mr. Robins said General William V.
Judson, military attaché of the American embassy, also believed in dealing with Trotsky on the subject of the raw material embargo, but when he went to the Russian leader to discuss the matter "he was summarily recalled to the United States."

ELEVATOR IS ROBBED; THIEVES MAKE ESCAPE

[BY SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.]
Cincinnati, March 5.—The office of the John Chester elevator was entered early this morning by thieves and the safe opened and contents taken. There was not much money on hand as the cheater had banked at a late hour yesterday.

From there they went to the Conley garage, broke open the door, and tried to start several of the cars. Failing in this, they made their escape in some unknown manner, probably on one of the early trains. Several people living near the elevator heard the reports but no alarm was given.

Germans in Occupied Zone Ordered to Wear Uniforms

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Coblenz, Wednesday, March 5.—All German officers and men on duty in the zone occupied by American troops must wear uniforms when they appear in the streets, according to an order effective Thursday.

The order is a result of a tendency of German senior officers to wear civilian clothes because of the dislike to bear of the order to salute all American officers.

The new order also calls for a weekly registration of each German officer and soldier on duty in this area.

Harness Dealers Ordered to Stop Trade Practices

Washington, March 5.—One hundred and fifty-nine officers and members of the wholesale saddlery association and 20 associated retail harness associations, component sections of the National Harness Manufacturers' association of the United States, were ordered by the federal trade commission today to stop trade practices which the commission held constituted conspiracy in restraint of trade.

LONDON EDITORS MAKE COMMENT ON AMERICAN POLITICS

WILSON'S NEW YORK SPEECH OCCUPIES PROMINENT PLACE IN ENGLISH PAPERS.

VIEW SENATE ACTION

Opponents in Congress Not Too Firmly Bound to Any Course to Change in Future, Says Telegraph.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, March 5.—President Wilson's speech at New York occupies a prominent place in the newspapers here. Some editors see in American domestic politics the key to the senate episode.

The telegraph says:
"Wilson's opponents in the senate have not, as a matter of fact, bound themselves to any course of action too firmly to adopt another if the president should 'make good' with the senate public opinion in the end.
All depends on the sense in which that opinion may make itself manifest when the treaty of peace and the league of nations have been approved here. Some editors see in American domestic politics the key to the senate
episode."

"European democracies are watching to see whether the impulse which brought America into the war against Germany is still strong enough to keep her at their side for the purpose of rearing the fabric of a war-free world," says the Chronicle. "They are not waiting without any interest to see whether the American public opinion is indispensable if the fabric is to stand."

Appeal Irresistible, Says News.
The News says:
"Mr. Wilson's appeal for America's co-operation in the salvation of the world is an irresistible force. The indignity of the selfish particularism of the opponents of the league is undeniable. Constitutionally, the opposition of this solid block of republicans to the league is formidable. Actually, as President Wilson confidently recognizes the issue is with the people, for no senate could refuse to ratify treaties establishing a league of nations, the command of the manifest and the expressed approval of the people of America."

"What the senate seems to want must appear to practical men the natural order of procedure. It is a question of the league is a vague and still doubtful system. The world wants time to think out these things and does not like being rushed into them by the enthusiasm of its idealists."

Paris Paper Calls It Sensational.
Paris, March 5.—The text of President Wilson's speech in New York arrived too late for this morning's French newspapers, but the only journal which gave any indication of an opinion on the address, was the Petit Parisien, which placed over the speech in large capitals the caption, "Sensation." Mr. Wilson on the society of nations."

BRITAIN AFTER EVERY PENNY--BONAR LAW

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, via Montreal, March 5.—
Andrew Bonar Law, government leader in the house of commons, replied last night to questions raised in a debate on foreign affairs.

As regards Bolshevism, Mr. Law said that few people now had any illusions about it. The allies agreed that something must be done for Russia, but none of them, he declared, would recommend despatching the necessary forces to quell the anarchy there.

As to indemnities, Mr. Law emphasized the point that it was Great Britain's business to get every penny it could, but it was useless to hold out the hope that the indemnities would wipe out the country's immense war debt.

Mr. Law agreed that it was urgent that peace be achieved quickly because there was real danger of Germany slipping into Bolshevism.
Moreover, he pointed out there was the greatest necessity for the allies to get their own trade and industries going again. He said the ordinary rates were lower than an ordinary life company can afford to quote, for the reason that the general fund of the government pays all of the expenses connected with the administration of this insurance.

"Within five years after the declaration of peace these soldiers and sailors may convert their present policies into one of the ordinary forms of life insurance. The rate of the converted policy will be higher, but it will still be less than an ordinary life company could offer to quote. When the policy is converted from the present policy to one of the ordinary forms
the soldier or sailor may reduce the amount of insurance to a sum less than that now carried by him."

Folks We All Know

BERGER AND ARNOLD IN U. S. TOILS

NEW CHARGE OF VIOLATION OF ESPIONAGE ACT BROUGHT AGAINST STATE SO-CIALIST.

CHARGED IN MADISON

Political Platform for Candidacy to Congress Held As False Report Injurious to Enlistments.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Madison, March 5.—Congressman-elect Victor L. Berger and Louis A.
Arnold, state senator, were arraigned before Federal Judge J. L. Sanborn, charged with violation of the espionage act. They pleaded not guilty and turned bonds of $5,000 each.

The cases will come up for trial at Eau Claire during the March term.
The specific violation is the circulation of Berger's platform as a candidate for United States senator one year ago, by himself and his manager, Arnold. The government contends that the platform contained statements that made it a violation of the espionage act to mail it.

Indictments Returned Nov. 30.
The indictments were returned by the grand jury to pass at La Crosse last fall. The jury made its report Nov. 30. No attempt was made to arrest either Berger or Arnold pending the trial of Berger at Chicago.
The offense charged in the indictment is different than that upon which Berger was convicted in Chicago last month.

The indictment in the present case charges Berger and Arnold with a violation of the espionage act, in the circulation of false reports to injure the success of the military and naval forces of the United States and to cause insubordination and mutiny and the obstruction of enlistments.

Senator Arnold has just been elected to a seat in the state senate for a second term. A contest to oust him from his seat was filed some time ago but the committee has taken no action on the matter. The senate judiciary committee has taken the position that the courts ought to pass on the subject matter before any action is taken in the state senate.

Trial Set for March 10.
"We are ready to go ahead with the trial of Mr. Berger and Senator Arnold at the federal term of court opening at Eau Claire on March 10," said U. S. Dist. Atty. Wolfe of La Crosse.

Mr. Berger and Senator Arnold will be tried at the same time. The maximum sentence under the indictment is five years or a fine of $5,000, or both. At the present time the latter will be represented by Henry P. Co-chema, Milwaukee, and Seymour Steadman, Chicago. The federal case will be presented by U. S. Dist. Atty. A. C.
Wolfe and U. S. Atty. J. R. Goggins, Grand Rapids.

Even if Mr. Berger were convicted, it could not possibly prolong his present sentence. Should he be convicted, the Chicago sentence and the latter would be served concurrently. Mr.
Wolfe said that there probably would have been no prosecution of Mr.
Berger if he had not been convicted in Chicago, but no one can tell how the Chicago sentence will come out on an appeal, and the government is therefore proceeding with the present case.

SERVICE MEN URGED TO HOLD INSURANCE

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, March 5.—That the Wisconsin soldiers and sailors after discharge should hold on to their government insurance, is the statement of Insurance Commissioner M. J. Cleary to Sen. Charles Mulberger, Watertown.

"They are permitted," says Commissioner Cleary, "to carry this insurance for a period not exceeding five years from the date peace was declared at the present time the rates are lower than an ordinary life company can afford to quote, for the reason that the general fund of the government pays all of the expenses
connected with the administration of
this insurance."

"Within five years after the declaration of peace these soldiers and sailors may convert their present policies
into one of the ordinary forms of life insurance. The rate of the converted policy will be higher, but it will still be less than an ordinary life
company could offer to quote. When
the policy is converted from the present
policy to one of the ordinary forms
the soldier or sailor may reduce the amount of insurance to a sum less
than that now carried by him."

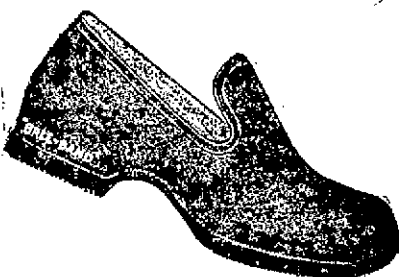

I. W. W. Sabotage of Army Trucks Reported in Ohio

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, March 5.—Reports of sabotage by I. W. W. members at points in Ohio where army automobiles and trucks are stored, have been received by war department officials.
Some of the acts reported here include the destruction of radiators and carburetors and the injury of other portions of the mechanism of trucks and automobiles.

Bomb Plot in Jewish Synagogue Revealed

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Saloniki, Wednesday, March 5.—
An anti-Semitic movement of serious proportions in Bulgaria is reported in a Jewish newspaper, Saturday, Feb.
15, a bomb was found in the central Jewish Synagogue in Sofia. It was timed to explode at a time when the edifice would have been filled with worshippers and it is alleged that it was placed there by Bulgarians.

LUBYS

INSTANT SERVICE

No Delays
These Stormy Days
Rubbers and Oveshoes

for every style of shoe—Men's, Women's, Children's. Highest grades; lowest prices and every pair guaranteed. Our stock is kept up to the minute.

PIANOS! PIANOS! PIANOS!

Do not be penny wise and pound foolish in caring for your piano, when a few days neglect at this time of year may prove so disastrous to it. Call J. H. HINDMAN—Don't put it off—he will properly tune and care for it. Single tuning or by the year. Call either phone or North's Music Store.

Taking a Friend to luncheon and selecting the right place presents no difficulties when you know about Sewell's.

SEWELL'S CAFE

Armory Block.
Cor. Milw. & Franklin Sts.

Dr. R. L. MacCormack

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
Over Baker's Drug Store
Cor. So. Franklin & Milw. Sts.
OFFICE HOURS:
10 to 12 a. m.; 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 p. m.

MONEY—$1000 TO $10,000—TO LOAN

We can help you to pay off a mortgage, build a home, pay for your farm, pay for your store building and let you pay us back by the month. Write us for particulars.

JAMES C. MORTGAGE
201 First National Bank Building, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

TEACHERS WILL ATTEND MEETINGS

No school tomorrow. Students of the Janesville high school are smiling and are happy to know that today is their last school day for the week. School will be suspended on Friday in order to allow the teachers to go to Madison to attend the annual Southern Wisconsin Teachers' conference. Several of the teachers will not return here until Sunday. Leading educators of the state will give addresses at the meetings.

HEROIC NURSE IS GIVEN WAR MEDAL

Secretary Baker pinning distinguished service cross on Miss McDonald.

Miss Beatrice McDonald of the reserve nurse army corps has been decorated for extraordinary heroism on duty with the surgical team at British casualty clearing station No. 61, British area. During a German night air raid she continued at her post until she was wounded by a bomb, thereby losing an eye. Her home is in New York city.

COCIVERA'S WIFE TAKES STAND IN HUSBAND'S DEFENSE

(Continued from Page 1)
Calagiero Pulvino. Upon close questioning by Mr. Dunwiddie, Francisco Curatolo said that Cocivera had said he would shoot Cordia if he came around. He related this in connection with an incident which is said to have happened last September when Cordia is supposed to have threatened the defendant. He said Cocivera was quickly quieted down and did not go out of the house looking for Cordia.

Witnesses Dodge Questions

Evans to answer to point-blank questions fired by Attorney T. D. Woolsey, in cross examinations of the state's Italian witnesses, featured the testimony taken yesterday afternoon. Professing little knowledge of the crime and apparently shielding many facts, several of these Italians plainly showed but one desire, and that was to tell as little as possible and get off the stand.

Was Afraid of Bomb

Jim DiLorenzo, proprietor of the grocery store, was the first Italian witness to tip off to Mr. Woolsey that the Black Hand band had been busy. After hearing the grocer's story as told in response to Mr. Dunwiddie's questions on direct examination, the defendant's counsel asked him:

"You have told a lot here today that you didn't tell in the preliminary examination in Beloit, haven't you?"

"Yes, I guess I have," he answered reluctantly.

"Why do you do it? Were you afraid of the Black Hand?"

"No, little I was afraid they would put a bomb under my store."

DiLorenzo told his story of the affair through Dan Torrisi, who acted as interpreter. He said he heard Cordia tell Cocivera the grocer said he just caught sight of the gun in Rip's hand, but in telling this he left an impression that he was not quite sure about seeing the weapon.

While the grocer was telling his story one of the daughters of the dead cobbler remarked from the gallery, "Why don't he tell the truth?"

She was quickly silenced by Sheriff Grover.

A clerk in the grocery store, Frank Farazi, testified he heard Cordia's conversation with Cocivera on the night of the murder; as follows:

"Come on out here," demanded Cordia.

"What do you want of me?" asked Cocivera.

"Come on out you dirty dog, or I'll shoot you right here."

Cordia went out leaving the door open and Cocivera followed him, Rip going out just as the shooting was going on, the witness testified.

He said he didn't count the shots but he thought there were about six or seven with a slight pause after the first two.

Tells of Trouble
Evidently to shield facts, the next two witnesses, Frank Bua and Tony Abbitt, who ran the store directly after the shooting fray. Both testified having been in the store before the homicide. Abbitt on cross-examination first said he knew of no trouble between Cocivera and Cordia, but later told of two visits Cordia made on Cocivera, one at midnight and the other at two o'clock the next morning last September and admitted that he knew there was ill feeling between the two men but hadn't heard of any threats on the part of Cordia to kill the other man.

Before the shooting, Cordia was in the grocery store filling up his pipe and smoking. Matt Curatolo testified.

"Come on out you dirty dog, or I'll shoot you right here."

Cordia went out leaving the door open and Cocivera followed him, Rip going out just as the shooting was going on, the witness testified.

He said he didn't count the shots but he thought there were about six or seven with a slight pause after the first two.

Tells of Trouble
Evidently to shield facts, the next two witnesses, Frank Bua and Tony Abbitt, who ran the store directly after the shooting fray. Both testified having been in the store before the homicide. Abbitt on cross-examination first said he knew of no trouble between Cocivera and Cordia, but later told of two visits Cordia made on Cocivera, one at midnight and the other at two o'clock the next morning last September and admitted that he knew there was ill feeling between the two men but hadn't heard of any threats on the part of Cordia to kill the other man.

Before the shooting, Cordia was in the grocery store filling up his pipe and smoking. Matt Curatolo testified.

"Come on out you dirty dog, or I'll shoot you right here."

Cordia went out leaving the door open and Cocivera followed him, Rip going out just as the shooting was going on, the witness testified.

He said he didn't count the shots but he thought there were about six or seven with a slight pause after the first two.

Tells of Trouble
Evidently to shield facts, the next two witnesses, Frank Bua and Tony Abbitt, who ran the store directly after the shooting fray. Both testified having been in the store before the homicide. Abbitt on cross-examination first said he knew of no trouble between Cocivera and Cordia, but later told of two visits Cordia made on Cocivera, one at midnight and the other at two o'clock the next morning last September and admitted that he knew there was ill feeling between the two men but hadn't heard of any threats on the part of Cordia to kill the other man.

Before the shooting, Cordia was in the grocery store filling up his pipe and smoking. Matt Curatolo testified.

"Come on out you dirty dog, or I'll shoot you right here."

Cordia went out leaving the door open and Cocivera followed him, Rip going out just as the shooting was going on, the witness testified.

He said he didn't count the shots but he thought there were about six or seven with a slight pause after the first two.

Tells of Trouble
Evidently to shield facts, the next two witnesses, Frank Bua and Tony Abbitt, who ran the store directly after the shooting fray. Both testified having been in the store before the homicide. Abbitt on cross-examination first said he knew of no trouble between Cocivera and Cordia, but later told of two visits Cordia made on Cocivera, one at midnight and the other at two o'clock the next morning last September and admitted that he knew there was ill feeling between the two men but hadn't heard of any threats on the part of Cordia to kill the other man.

Before the shooting, Cordia was in the grocery store filling up his pipe and smoking. Matt Curatolo testified.

"Come on out you dirty dog, or I'll shoot you right here."

Cordia went out leaving the door open and Cocivera followed him, Rip going out just as the shooting was going on, the witness testified.

He said he didn't count the shots but he thought there were about six or seven with a slight pause after the first two.

Tells of Trouble
Evidently to shield facts, the next two witnesses, Frank Bua and Tony Abbitt, who ran the store directly after the shooting fray. Both testified having been in the store before the homicide. Abbitt on cross-examination first said he knew of no trouble between Cocivera and Cordia, but later told of two visits Cordia made on Cocivera, one at midnight and the other at two o'clock the next morning last September and admitted that he knew there was ill feeling between the two men but hadn't heard of any threats on the part of Cordia to kill the other man.

Before the shooting, Cordia was in the grocery store filling up his pipe and smoking. Matt Curatolo testified.

"Come on out you dirty dog, or I'll shoot you right here."

Cordia went out leaving the door open and Cocivera followed him, Rip going out just as the shooting was going on, the witness testified.

He said he didn't count the shots but he thought there were about six or seven with a slight pause after the first two.

Tells of Trouble
Evidently to shield facts, the next two witnesses, Frank Bua and Tony Abbitt, who ran the store directly after the shooting fray. Both testified having been in the store before the homicide. Abbitt on cross-examination first said he knew of no trouble between Cocivera and Cordia, but later told of two visits Cordia made on Cocivera, one at midnight and the other at two o'clock the next morning last September and admitted that he knew there was ill feeling between the two men but hadn't heard of any threats on the part of Cordia to kill the other man.

Before the shooting, Cordia was in the grocery store filling up his pipe and smoking. Matt Curatolo testified.

"Come on out you dirty dog, or I'll shoot you right here."

Cordia went out leaving the door open and Cocivera followed him, Rip going out just as the shooting was going on, the witness testified.

He said he didn't count the shots but he thought there were about six or seven with a slight pause after the first two.

WIRE TICKS

Badger Dies in Prison.
Washington.—Information regarding Americans formerly held as prisoners of war in Germany was made public by the war department today as follows: Edward V. Mallory, Meadonia, died in a German prison camp.

Pork Export Ban Lifted.
Washington.—Removal of pork and pork products from the export conservation list, was announced by the war trade board.

British Prisoners to Be Released.
London.—The British government has decided to release all Irish political prisoners, says the Daily Mail.

Clergy Attacks Bolsheviki.
Omaha.—After remaining neutral for two years, the clergy in the government of Omaha is now bitterly attacking the Bolsheviki.

Queen Arrives in Paris.
Paris.—Queen Marie of Rumania and her three daughters arrived in Paris, having fled from Bucharest.

Ypres Casualties 258,027.
London.—The casualties of the British, Canadian and Australian troops in the Ypres salient from July 31 to Nov. 18, 1917, aggregated in officers and men 258,027.

Restaurants to Be Reopened.
London.—The chamber of deputies passed a bill authorizing the government to advance 25,000,000 francs for organization of popular restaurants.

Rumanians Lose 320,000.
Paris.—The Rumanian press bureau announced that 320,000 Rumanian combatants were killed or died from wounds.

Chicago Loses to Northwestern.
Chicago.—Northwestern university defeated Chicago university at basketball, 15 to 12, the defeat costing Chicago the western conference championship which now goes to Minnesota.

Soldiers' Unions Prohibited.
Bern.—The Swiss federal council has issued an order prohibiting soldiers' unions.

Lewis Throws Froberg.
Springfield, Mass.—Ed. "Strangler" Lewis threw Joe Froberg with a deadlock.

Allies to Meet Germans.
Posen.—The inter-allied commission which was sent to arrange new armistice terms between the Germans and the Poles left yesterday to meet the German delegation sent from Berlin.

Steel Manufacturers Meet.
New York.—Steel manufacturers from all parts of the country are meeting here today to discuss the proposed plan of Secretary of Commerce Redfield for stabilizing prices at lower levels.

Ex-Navy Secretary Dies.
Tampa, Fla.—Hilary A. Herbert, secretary of the navy during Grover Cleveland's second term, died here today at the age of 85 years.

"Tanks" to Advertise Loan.
Washington.—More than 200 fast American fighting "tanks" have been sent by the war department to the liberty loan organization to be sent scurrying over city streets and country roads during the victory loan campaign as advertising devices.

Hymn Writer Dies.
Peoria, Ill.—Julia Harrietta Johnston, one of the noted hymn writers of America, died at her home here this morning. She was born in Salineville, Ohio, Jan. 21, 1849. She was the author of more than 500 hymns and gospel songs, besides having written several books.

Four Die in Tornado.
Enfauila, Ala.—Reports today from the section swept yesterday by a tornado, say that the death toll is now estimated at $1,000,000.

Fargo, N. D.—Thirteen families, about 65 persons, were driven from their homes shortly after midnight this morning when fire of undetermined origin destroyed an apartment house here. The total loss is estimated at $55,000.

Cold Grip and Influenza.
LAXATIVE BRONCO QUININE TABLETS remove the cause. There is one "Bronco Quinine." E. W. GROVE'S signature on the box. 30c.

Shop in The Gazette before you shop in the stores.

Will Pose as "The Fountain of Youth"

"The Fountain of Youth" was posed by Miss Madeline Gildersleeve, beautiful model, at the Washington's birthday eve ball staged at the Hotel des Artistes, New York.

It was a water fantasy staged in the tank of the hotel. The ball was given by the New York artists of note.

Standard cold remedy for 20 years—in tablet form—safe, sure, no opiates—breaks up a cold in 24 hours—relieves grip in 3 days. Money back if it fails. The genuine box has a Red top with Mr. Hill's picture. At All Drug Stores.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

ENLISTS IN FIGHT WHERE SISTER DIED

Vida Milholland.

Miss Vida Milholland, sister of the famous suffrage leader, Inez Milholland, who gave her life while fighting for the suffrage cause, has given up her career in the stage to devote her time to fulfilling her sister's ideals.

WILSON KEEPS APACE WITH NUMBER 13

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

On Board U. S. S. George Washington, March 6.—President Wilson is enjoying a day of rest on his second day out. After breakfast he read the comments of United States senators on the statement he made at the time Congress adjourned.

The number 13 which is regarded as the president's lucky number, is again figuring in connection with his doings. The present is the thirteenth round trip for the George Washington since the United States took over the steamer and the president expects to arrive in France, Thursday, March 13.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE OPENS AT BELOIT

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Beloit, March 6.—Experts from the University of Wisconsin agricultural department are conducting a farmer's institute at Beloit college today with several hundred in attendance from the southern section of Rock county. College buildings have been thrown open to the visitors and practical demonstrations are being conducted. The institute will close Saturday. Included in the program are demonstrations of practical community work by trained experts.

SERGEANT RYAN ADDRESSES A. O. H.

Bergeant Wilbert Ryan, formerly top sergeant of old M. company addressed the members of the A. O. H. at their regular meeting last evening and told of the work of the Janesville boys in France. Sergeant Ryan related his experiences on the battlefield and gave a most interesting and thrilling talk of the war.

Wonderful endurance and fighting qualities of Company M were features of his address. Wonderful work accomplished by different war organizations in France as recounted by Sergeant Ryan aroused interest.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

Notice: Circle No. 8, Cargill M. E. church, will meet with Mrs. Peterson, Monroes street, Friday at 2:30. Large attendance desired. Mrs. Evenson, president.

WOMEN'S FEDERATION TO AID FAIR BOARD

Cooperation of the City Federation of Women with the Janesville Fair board was voted after hearing frank statements given to them by Dr. W. W. Hunt, president of the board, and the secretary, Harry Nowlan, at a meeting of the City Federation held at the rest room this morning.

The officials asked the assistance of the women in planning something along the line of amusements, and also in the dining facilities of the fair. After a general discussion of the questions, although the women do not feel like taking the responsibility for these concessions, they voted to lend their assistance in every way possible to the Janesville Fair association.

It was also voted to cooperate in a community party, which event had been suggested by the Drama club. The president was empowered to appoint a committee to assist in the affair.

A report of the membership committee headed by Mrs. William Judd showed that about thirty-five new members had been taken in recently. Mrs. Louise Skelly and Mrs. W. W. Yankirk were appointed as heads of the two new groups of members formed.

The Janesville Gazette

New Bldg. 200-201 E. Milwaukee St.
Entered at the Postoffice at Janesville
Wis., as Second Class Mail Matter

Full Leased Wire News Report by the Associated Press

BUSINESS OFFICE OPEN SATURDAY EVENING

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
By carrier in Mo. Tr. 6 Mo. 1 yr.
Janesville. 50c $5.00 $10.00
Rural routes in Mo. Tr. 6 Mo. 1 yr.
trade territory 50c $4.00 $8.00
By mail 50c $4.00 $8.00 in advance Including subscriptions overseas to men in U. S. Service

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of the news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local items published herein and also the local news published herein.

The Gazette Stands Ready to Support all Endeavor to Make Janesville and Community a Bigger and Better Community.

BACK TO THE LAND.

Congress in the use of many words has admitted the menace of bolshevism. Orators have taken the floor of the senate and expended much energy in denouncing conditions which encourage that menace. It is, therefore, not easy to understand the sluggish interest shown by our national legislators in Secretary Lane's plan to employ soldiers in the reclamation of waste lands and then open these lands to soldier settlement.

Congress must know that in the leading industrial centers of this country more than 300,000 men are today out of employment, and that long continued unemployment of large numbers of men will encourage bolshevism. Congress must know that it merely denouncing bolshevism will not kill it; that the only sure way to put it out of business is to guarantee fair wages to all. That is the idea back of Secretary Lane's plan.

The reclamation project should have been favorably acted upon two months ago. For it was necessary for Secretary Lane, a few days before congress adjourned, to make a second appeal in favor of his measure, in which he said in part:

"If congress will appropriate the relatively small sum which I have asked for the construction of soldier settlements in every state in the union,
I can offer jobs almost immediately to 100,000 of our returned fighting men, thus helping to stem the tide of unemployment predicted by Secretary Wilson; provide farm houses for 25,000 of these men; thus mitigating the evils of tenantry; and bring into cultivation, 1,500,000 acres of present unproductive land, thus helping to make up the deficiency in the rate of growth of cultivated land as compared with the rate of growth of our population.
There can be no surer insurance for the nation than to put its men upon the soil."

The appropriation asked by Secretary Lane is $100,000,000, not a large sum in comparison with some of our startling war expenditures. But with this sum, many hundreds of thousands of acres of unproductive land could be put under the plow and the desire of hundreds of thousands of men who could be gratified. The unemployed problem in a measure would be solved and American would show her gratitude to returned heroes in a way that would be as helpful to them as it would be beneficial to the nation.

GERMAN THREATS.

The German cabinet's wild statements concerning what should and should not be done by the entente powers is laughable, when the position of that country is considered.
Leaders now say that Germany will not submit to coercion.

Call it coercion, if you please, but the fact remains that Germany will have to submit to the demands of those allies, regardless of the wishes of those who are posing as the would-be advocates of that nation.

Germany is in no position to dictate terms of any kind. She has been whipped in a war of her own making.
Any hardships she will be asked to bear result from her own cruelty and folly. The allies will have no patience with any attempt of Hun four-flush-ers to arouse sentiment against a condition which will have to be faced.

These leaders harp on "German patience." Germany will have to be patient. The allies have problems of their own which must be taken care of because the Germans, when they thought they were powerful enough to rule the world, tangled their affairs which will take years to unravel.

The present German government declares that it will not be responsible for consequences if the allies press their demands. We are not particularly interested in whether the German government takes that responsibility or not. If it is necessary, the allies can give Germany a second dose of medicine which will put her in her right place and keep her there until she is ready to behave for all time.

The Ebert government is said to be in honor bound to furnish the former kaiser and his wife a safe retreat on German soil. If the Ebert government is wise it will keep its hands off Kaiser Bill and his affairs until the allies are ready to attend to his case.

PRESERVE THE TIMBER.

Under the stress of war times many economies have been practiced, which under other conditions would not have obtained. Most of this conservation has been beneficial and those who have participated have done so willingly,
and with a spirit of patriotism which
is indeed creditable.

The householder has put up with much inconvenience with his fuel supply and has done so willingly that coal might be saved at a critical time.

The local fuel administrator, Henry
M. Hanson, has ably handled the difficulty, and we are entrusting to him and urging farmers to cut wood for fuel purposes. While this advice may be necessary at this time, the depletion of the too few oak openings in southern Wisconsin is being carried on rapidly and our children's children will not know the joys of communing with nature which you and I and our forefathers gloried in. Those owners of wood lands in southern Wisconsin who have given thought to the children, and their elders as far as that is concerned, joy in studying bird life, plant life, etc., in the woods and have not cut out their timber are serving the public in a way which they should be credited with by all lovers of the great outdoors.

As a matter of education the few remaining wood patches should be preserved for posterity. The thousands of acres of wood in the northeastern counties of the state should answer the purpose for fuel if it could be brought to market.

AN OPPORTUNITY.

Rock county has an opportunity to be among the first to construct a system of permanent highways. It can be done if the bond issue meets with the approval of the voters. It is simply a business proposition. The same principle which a farmer or merchant would apply in his business can be applied in getting the funds, borrowing the money to build the roads and use them while they are being paid for.
If a farmer, for instance, could see that he would increase his income by buying 50 acres of land, and although he did not have the cash on hand to buy, he would borrow the funds, get possession of the land, cultivate it and while he was paying for it receive the benefits.

In bonding the county for sufficient money to build concrete roads this same procedure will be carried out.
While we are paying off the bond issue we will have the use of the roads.
If we build piece-meal we will be at the task for the next 25 years or more and only a few will be benefited.
If we continue to patch up roads, which are almost impassable, at an estimated cost of $4,000 per mile, we will continue to waste money which could not only be used to pay the interest on the bonds, but which could be applied on the principal.

CITY PLANS.

One of the most noted city planners in this country is coming to Janesville next week. He is John Nolen, Boston, who has won his reputation through his common sense ideas. He takes a city in hand the same way a business expert would take a business and lays out plans which will make that city not only a better place in which to live but suggests ways and means of improving it along all lines.

Some people have the impression that a city planner is a person whose sole aim is to tear down those things which have been built up; that his one ambition is to find fault with things as they are and change them around to suit his ideas.

Mr. Nolen does not tear down. He goes over a city, determines on changes which can be made for the best interests of that city and builds for the future.

No more opportune time could be chosen for a city plan than now.
Janesville is going to change and grow. Things that have been good enough for years will not be good enough for the future. In making these changes it is necessary that some definite scheme be followed.
What Mr. Nolen will do is to tell us the best way necessary changes can be made. He will plan a future Janesville just as an architect would plan a house. He will submit these plans and it will be up to those who have charge of the city's affairs to carry them out if they see fit.

The national war-labor board has decided that women who do men's work are entitled to equal pay. This is a step in the right direction but in some cases should go farther. Many women have demonstrated that they not only can do man's work as well but better than some of the males.

The French chamber of deputies passed a bill to advance $5,000,000 to make Paris restaurants more popular.
If they had just waited a while it would not have been necessary.
American soldiers and visitors will have paid that sum for food before the troops return home, according to reports coming from the French capital.

Henry Ford has announced that he will leave his old company flat on its back and build a new car which will cost between $750 and $900. It is said Henry is peeved because he was made to pay part of a special dividend of $19,275,885 to the Dodge brothers, minority stockholders and manufacturers of automobiles.

Distance is being shortened every day through new inventions. A doctor on board one ship treated men taken suddenly ill on another, 100 miles away, by use of the wireless telephone.

After withstanding the onslaughts of republicans for weeks, democrats have one crumb of satisfaction, too much. A democrat has been elected in a Tennessee district for the first time in 50 years.

FAR APART.
Visitor—I hope you isolate the children with the measles.
Mother—I do. That has it is at one end of the bed and them that ain't got at the other.

AND HE DID.

THE WIFE TOLD ME TO HURRY HOME WITH THESE EGGS!

AND HE DID.

Under the stress of war times many economies have been practiced, which under other conditions would not have obtained. Most of this conservation
has been beneficial and those who have participated have done so willingly,
and with a spirit of patriotism which
is indeed creditable.

JUST FOLKS

By EDGAR A. GUEST.

THE GAYER SIDE.

Put a little laughter into life.
Break a little sunshine through the gray.
Soften all the bitterness of strife.
By mixing in a little bit of play.
Know the birds and brooks, and know
the trees.
Know the hearts of little children, too.
Learn to sing the happy melodies.
God gave many talents unto you.

Drop the daily burden, now and then.
Wander far from duty, if you choose.
Take the time to know your fellow-men.
Never mind the money you may lose.
Laughter makes a sweeter sound than gold.
Friendship is a richer gift than fame.
Kindness keeps the heart from growing cold.
Make the world be thankful that you came!

Travel down the byways now and then.
Leave the crowded thoroughfare and stray
Far from all the dreary cares of men.
Stop and pick the blossoms on the way.
Visit with your neighbors here and there.
Spend some idle minutes with your dreams.
Life is not a constant round of care.
Gold is not as vital as it seems.

Put a little laughter into life.
Break a little sunshine through the
gray.
Soften all the bitterness of strife.
By mixing in a little bit of play.
God made many joys for you to know—Hills and fields and trees and flowers and friends.
Why, then, be a slave to care and woe?
Learn to claim the pleasures that He sends.

ON THE SPUR of the MOMENT

ROY K. MOULTON

ORATION.
When the last sword is broken,
When the last blood is shed,
We shall pour out in token
Our hearts upon our dead;
And such words shall be spoken
As no man yet has said.

Naught but our acclamation
Shall be their due on earth;
No tears, but love's libation,
No grief, but quiet mirth
Shall greet their liberation
Upon a greater birth.

Sleep! and have joy for sadness,
Under the sacred sod;
Dream! and forget the madness
Of war's wild way you led;
Wake! if the Great God's gladness
Before the face of God.

—Percy A. Child.

He may be Sir John Pershing over there, but he will leave the title in the check room at Westminster Abbey and will be plain old Jack Pershing when he gets home. He's that kind.

SOME SLEEPWALKER.
"SIDE WALKED IN HER SLEEP."
With the Entire Original Cast.
—From a Buffalo Contemporary.

Fashion expert says that men's trousers next year will flare out at the bottoms like sailors' trousers.
"But we know of one pair that won't. We positively refuse to have them changed."

"The men who received letters from Theodore Roosevelt are bobbing up all over the country and bragging about it in the newspapers," notes Tom Thompson in the Howard
"Courier." "I never exactly got a letter from Teddy, but about fifteen years ago I once found in my mail a long, round roll with a red ribbon and gilt seal attached, which bore the words in substance as follows: 'Reposing in absolute trust and confidence in the intelligence, diligence and discretion of — and so forth and so forth, concluding with 'I do appoint him postmaster of Howard for a term of four years,' and at the bottom, signed in a bold hand, was the signature of Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States. And at the moment it ticked me more than would a letter."

EDITOR'S FALSE ALARM.
While trying to dodge a pretty young woman who acted as if she intended to kiss him, Editor Lindstrom fell over a barrel of salt on the Lang-

Janesville, Phones
Bell, 12; R. O., Red 596.

Andelson Bros
"The House of Courtesy"
13 WEST MILWAUKEE STREET

Unmatchable values now on display in

New Spring
Suits and Capes

They are fashionably made, all the newest shades and fabrics are represented; all fresh from the manufacturers' display rooms, are ready for you and we know that you will at least enjoy coming in and trying them on.

FORTY YEARS AGO

The Janesville Daily Gazette, March 6, 1879.—Three tramps appeared before Justice Prichard this morning.
One hailed from Madison, and claimed to be enroute for New Orleans. Another was a St. Louis and claimed to have worked his way from St. Paul, and the third was a member of the Soldier's home in Milwaukee. They promised to renew their journey and the justice bid them go in peace.
E. L. Carey, who has been a student in Dr. Palmer's office, returned last evening from Chicago, bringing with him a parchment from the Chicago Medical college, making him a full-fledged "M. D."
The funeral of Martin Hunt was held at St. Patrick's church yesterday afternoon and was largely attended.

SNOW TIME FOR DIP IN LAKE, BUT—

"The Girl in the Furs" and "The Girl in the Bathing Suit" on beach at Milwaukee.

Here are two very different ways of enjoying a nice bright afternoon along the ice-covered and snowfringed lake. One is to be bundled up to the neck in furs.

don depot platform and then Lindstrom discovered that the young lady had her eye on another man all the while.—Bismarck. (N. D.) Tribune.

Read the want ads.

Easy Shorthand

It is now possible for you to learn a superior shorthand method inside of 6 hours; then speed can be gained so that you write as fast as a person talks.
In learning shorthand a lot of money is spent on penmanship when it is now so easy and it will be taught by mail.
Absolutely guaranteed. Free lesson will be sent if you write to King Institute, EZ-201, Station E New York, N. Y.
Take advantage of this free trial tuition-by-mail offer. You will be surprised and delighted. Show others this advertisement.

"Get the Persimmons"

by buying Suits and Coats here now.

The savings are the persimmons.

R. M. Bostwick & Son

Main Street at Number Sixteen South
Merchants of Fine Clothes.

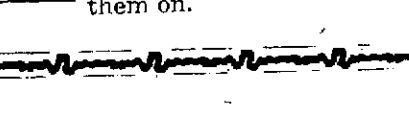

Janesville, Phones
Bell, 12; R. O., Red 596.

Andelson Bros
"The House of Courtesy"
13 WEST MILWAUKEE STREET

Unmatchable values now
on display in

New Spring
Suits and Capes

They are fashionably
made, all the newest shades and fabrics are represented; all fresh from the manufacturers'
display rooms, are ready
for you and we know
that you will at least enjoy coming in and trying them on.

REHBERG'S

BOSTONIANS
Famous Shoes for Men.

Men who know prefer Bostonians.
When you need a new pair of shoes, come in and try on a pair of these.

EXEMPT FROM ALL FEDERAL INCOME TAXES.
$8,000,000.00

State of Louisiana
Port Commission Serial
5% Gold Bonds.
$6,000,000 Canal Gold Bonds payable July 1, 1913 to 1919.
$2,000,000 Harbor Improvement Bonds, Gold Bonds payable March 1, 1927 to 1929.
DATED MARCH 1, 1919.

A general obligation of the State of Louisiana issued under the constitution of the state. Proceeds to be used in constructing a canal between Mississippi river and Lake Ponchartrain.
Harbor improvement bonds for erecting and operating harbor warehouses.
1939 maturities are $500 bonds, all others $1000.
Price par and interest.
If interested see

C. J. SMITH
15 W. Milwaukee St.
Janesville, Wisconsin Representing
GOLD-STABECK COMPANY
Minneapolis, Minnesota.

LONG WEAR AND ECONOMY

"Last year I purchased a standard make of shoes, and in sixty days the soles were worn through. I had them re-soled with Neolin Soles—which lasted me six months in the same service that wore out the other soles in two," writes E. A. Lancaster of Lancaster & Company, jewelers, Greenville, Tenn.

Mr. Lancaster's experience with Neolin Soles is not unusual. Millions of people can testify to their long wear and economy. To reduce your shoe expense, buy Neolin-soled shoes. You can get them in many styles for every member of the family.

Neolin Soles are created by Science to be comfortable and waterproof as well as long wearing. Good repair shops carry them. They are made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

Neolin Soles

Trade Mark Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

LOAN $100 WE PAY $135
US 900 $135

Five-Year 7% Gold Notes

The Milwaukee Electric Railway & Light Co
Security Dept, Public Service Bldg, Milwaukee.

Why let your money earn less than 7%

Wisconsin's largest, strongest, most rapidly growing public utility company offers Wisconsin investors an opportunity to share its earnings by purchase of its 5-year, 7%, bond-secured Gold Notes, in $50, $100, $500 and $1,000 sizes.

Notes mature and will be paid in cash
Nov. 1, 1923. Buyers collect interest twice a year—May 1 and Nov. 1—by clipping interest coupons and taking them to the nearest bank.

The State has appraised the company's property. Its value exceeds its total capitalization, and exceeds its total debt, including this $3,600,000 Note issue, by over $16,000,000. Its earnings are assured by State regulation, by conservative management and by the steady growth of the Greater Milwaukee district, for which the company supplies substantially all of the electric power, light, heat and transportation service. Safety considered, this is the best short term investment now on sale in Wisconsin.

TERMS OF SALE: Par for cash certified check, express or postoffice money order. Notes will be mailed direct or delivered through your home bank, C. O. D., as buyer's prefer.

The Notes are for sale in Janesville at the MERCHANTS & SAVINGS BANK.

Do Your Savings Equal the Average?

According to Government reports, one person in every ten in the United States has a savings account, with an average balance of $440.00.

How much money have you saved? Does YOUR Savings Bank balance equal the average?

Or are you one of the nine-tenths who have no savings account—and no money saved.

If you are one of the latter, we invite you to join the 3075 people who are depositing their savings with us.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Established 1855

A Checking Account

is the best safeguard against extravagance, for each cancelled check shows you just where every dollar goes.

Try the "pay-by-check" system for 30 days and we are sure that you will always

PAY YOUR BILLS BY CHECK.

Merchants & Savings Bank

The Oldest Savings Bank in Rock County.

E. H. DAMROW, D. C.

CHIROPRACTOR
Palmer School Graduate.
205 JACKMAN BLOCK
X-Ray Laboratory.
Office Hours: 1 to 5 P. M.; 2 to 5 P. M.; 7 to 9 P. M.
Both Phones 970.
Residence phone 1160 Black.

F. W. MILLER

CHIROPRACTOR
409-410 Jackman Block.
R. C. Phone 178 Black.
Hours: 9 A. M. to 6 P. M.
Lady Attendant.
Your Spine Examined Free.
Bell Phone 1004.

CHIROPRACTOR

G. H. ANGSTRÖM, D. C.
Palmer School Graduate.
405 Jackman Block.
Both Phones 57.
OFFICE HOURS:
1 to 4; and 5 to 7:45 P. M.

MUNICIPAL BONDS

are the same as GOVERNMENT BONDS
on a smaller scale at a higher rate of interest. Free from Federal Income Taxes.

They are issued in denominations of $100 to $1,000. We sell single bonds. Circular sent on request.

THE HANCHETT BOND CO.
Inc. 1910.
MUNICIPAL BONDS
39 S. La Salle St., Chicago.
JOHN C. HANCHETT
Resident Partner
435 N. Jackson St.
Phone No. 30.

Notice: The Women's Relief Corps will meet at the Red Cross rooms, Friday afternoon, Anna Morse.

Special Notice To Eagles: A large sale will be initiated tonight. All members are urged to be present.

Notice: Gen. John S. Reynolds Circle No. 41, Ladies of the G. A. R., will meet at 1002 Ravine street Friday afternoon and evening. Business meeting at 8 o'clock.

NOTICE OF FIRST MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS OF JANSVILLE HOUSING CORPORATION.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the first meeting of the stockholders of the JANSVILLE HOUSING CORPORATION for the election of directors and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting will be held at the Municipal Court room, in the City Hall, of the City of Janesville, Wisconsin, on the 15th day of March, 1919, at eight o'clock P. M.

J. P. CULLEN,
R. G. CUNNINGHAM,
W. H. DOUGHERTY, Incorporators.
Shop in The Gazette before you shop in the stores.

LOAN ASSOCIATION TO AID HOME BUILDERS WILL BE ORGANIZED

Sale of stock in a proposed building and loan association to work in conjunction with the Housing corporation to aid workingmen to own their own homes has nearly reached $5,000. It was learned today following a conference of J. P. Hammerlund, chairman of the loan committee, with executives of the Chamber of Commerce.

Actual organization is expected to take place within a month. When there are 100 signers for stock, or approximately 1,500 shares, the banking department will survey local conditions and grant a charter. There are at present about 30 signers, the stock total amounting to $4,500.

"The purpose of a building and loan association such as the one proposed is to enable the men without capital to build his home and pay for it in payments slightly larger than rent," Mr. Hammerlund stated this morning. "It is a mutual benefit organization."

"For instance, a man may take 10 shares of stock, paying down 50 cents per share. He may then borrow the extent of his stock ($1,000) for building operations or similar plans."

"We will work with the Housing corporation in this way. A man gets a house, paying for it at a certain rate. It is mortgaged for a certain percentage of its value. The owner may take stock in the building and loan association with which to pay off his mortgage."

SHERWOOD RESIGNS FROM POLICE FORCE

Chief of Police William Gower announced this morning that he had accepted the resignation of Les Sherwood, the east side night man and that Charles Dickinson would resume his place on the police force in a few days.

Mr. Dickinson will be named desk sergeant by Chief Gower, according to a statement made by him this morning. Night Captain Thomas McCarthy will again resume his duties on the street and will guard the middle beat during the night.

Mr. Sherwood resigned to enter the law business. He has been roving the force for nearly two years and has been stationed on the east side of the river.

H. S. PUPILS DISMISSED TO GIVE TEAM SENDOFF

Over 550 high school pupils were dismissed from school this morning to give the basketball team a rousing sendoff for the Whitewater tournament. The men, who left on the 10:30 train were enthusiastically cheered. Captain Sprackling was boosted up on the shoulders of the crowd. The men will prepare for their first contest as soon as they arrive in Whitewater. Coach Crutcher will draw lots as to when and what team they will run up against in the first contest. The men who made the trip are Kuzum, Sprackling, Rod, Powers, Fisher, McDermott and Hager. Allen and McWay were unable to go.

GAMES AT WHITEWATER.
Oregon vs. Fort Atkinson, 3:00 p. m.
Janesville vs. Evansville, 4:00 p. m.
Elkhorn vs. Waterloo, 7:30 p. m.
Stoughton vs. Delavan, 8:15 p. m.
Whitewater vs. Lake Geneva, 9:15 p. m.

Housing Committee Accepts Real Estate

Although active solicitation of funds for state land in the Janesville Housing corporation has stopped, lots are still being accepted by the committee, and shares will be issued as soon as they can be appraised following incorporation.

45 Pigs Bought for County Pure Bred Club

Forty-five pure bred pigs have been contracted for the Rock County Pig club by County Agent R. E. Acheson. and only a few more will have to be purchased. Two pure bred Durocs were purchased in Fall River, while Mr. Acheson obtained a couple of pure bred Poland Chinas from a breeder in Babcock.

It is planned to complete all arrangements for the club this week so the pig distribution may be made about Wednesday of next week.

Shop in The Gazette before you shop in the stores.

THE BEAUTY OF THE SEASON AT PALM BEACH

Mrs. John E. Liggett ready for a dip at Palm Beach.

Mrs. John E. Liggett of New York and Newport was one of the earliest arrivals at Palm Beach. The season is well under way now. Societal at the famous resort has unanimously voted Mrs. Liggett the beauty of the season. Her engaging smile and her vivacity make her unusually popular. The photo shows her attired for an afternoon on the beach.

MACHINE WRECKED WHEN HIT BY STREET CAR AND AUTO TRUCK

John Wellenitz, a farmer, residing south of this city had his new car completely demolished about four o'clock yesterday afternoon when it was struck by both an auto truck and a street car. The auto truck was owned by the Fife Lumber company, according to the report received by the police.

Mr. Wellenitz was driving toward the city and the auto truck laden with lumber, attempting to go in a driveway backed directly into the car. A Janesville street car crashed into the auto completely wrecking it. Mr. Wellenitz escaped injury.

GAS CAUSED BIG FIRE LOSS IN 1918

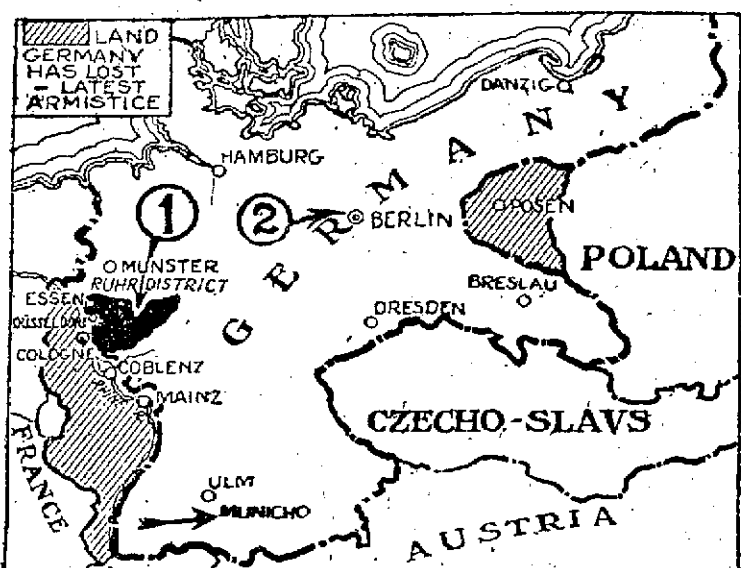

Fire Chief Cornelius Murphy has received a communication from the Industrial Commission of Wisconsin relative to the amount of fire loss during the past year due to the use of gas for lighting, heating and cooking.

Chief Murphy stated that although the loss was extremely heavy in the state Janesville suffered only slightly from fires caused by the use of gas. He stated however, that the use of gas for heating and cooking was responsible for many fires in neighboring cities and he urges that housewives using gas for these purposes be extremely careful when lighting the burners.

Good to Remember.
It is well to have visions of a better life than that of every day, but it is the life of every day from which elements of a better life must come.—Maeterlinck.

Quite a Scholar.
Mrs. Kaylor—I suppose, dear, you are learning grammar in your school. Bessie—Oh, yes, all about nouns and pronouns, verbs and preverbs.—Boston Transcript.

THE SITUATION IN GERMANY TODAY

Arrow one indicates Ruhr district where miners are striking. Arrow two indicates Berlin, where U. S. troops guard food supplies. Third arrow at bottom of map points to Munich, where anarchist killed Bavarian premier and followers were shot.

1—The Spartans and the government troops are fighting in the Ruhr district, near Dusseldorf and Essen. The village of Rotterop is being besieged and shelled by the rebels. Most of the coal mines of the district are tied up by strikes, and if the fuel shortage in Germany becomes acute the allies may occupy the district.

2—American troops are officially reported to be in Berlin, guarding the food supplies.
At Munich, indicated by the other arrow, Premier Kurt Eisner of Bavaria, was assassinated; Herr Auer, minister of the interior, was wounded; Deputy Osel killed, and two other officials wounded.
The shaded portions of Germany indicate the extent of the territory that Germany has had to give up under the various armistice clauses. They include Rhineland, Palatinate, Alsace-Lorraine and Posen.
Eisner was slain by Lieutenant Count Arco-Valley.

LOOKING AROUND

SOME HOUSEKEEPER.
Bill Korte is keeping house this week. He says he has used every dish in one set and is now starting on the second.

BIG PARADE TONIGHT.
Beloit basketball fans and the Fairbanks-Morse band will stage a parade in this city this evening starting at the Myers hotel at eight o'clock.

NAME NOT IN COLUMN.
Several members of the Lakota club are patting themselves on the back and crowing about not having their names in this column. Reno and Doc had better not be to sure about their safety.

BUCK WEAVER COMING.
George "Buck" Weaver, star shortstop of the Chicago White Sox will be in the city this evening to attend the basketball game. Buck still maintains that he prefers Deloit to Chicago.

BACK AGAIN.
Dave Murray, who has managed to keep away from the municipal court for over a year, was halled before Judge Maxfield this morning to answer a charge of intoxication. Murray entered a plea of guilty to the charge and was given a fine of $10 and costs or 15 days.

ACCIDENT Averted.
An accident, which might have been costly, was narrowly averted this morning when a truck of the Fife Lumber company laden with lumber skidded and nearly turned completely around on West Milwaukee street. The driver attempted to turn out of car tracks and in so doing his car skidded.

150 TO ATTEND.
Louis Avery, chairman of the committee, in charge of the banquet to be given at this evening in honor of Dr. Wauke, stated this morning that fully 150 were expected to attend the banquet. Several local physicians have been recently discharged from the army will tell of their experiences and Dr. Wauke will give an address on his work in the American army hospitals in France.

WOODRUFF IN RUSSIA.
George Woodruff, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Woodruff, this city, is now in Vladivostok, Russia, with the marines, according to word received from him today. He left Mare Island training station, California, January 6 and spent a short time in Japan.

THE STING OF DEFEAT.
Cribbage seems to be the favorite game of members of the jury in the Coelvera murder case. Ernie Clement was defeated in three games last night, so retired immediately and slept until 7:30 this morning.

SOME "KICK".
Judge Grimm smoked an Italian cigar yesterday. He says they contain at least 7 per cent nicotine.

IT HAPPENS TO EVERYONE.
County Agent R. E. Acheson wore a worried look this morning as he frantically telephoned to Chicago railroad officials. He left his grip on the train when he stepped off this morning.

Where Trees Are Milked.
In British Guiana and the West Indies, particularly on the banks of the River Demerara, there grows a tree known to the natives as the "Iya-hya," which yields from its bark and pith a juice slightly richer and thicker than cow's milk. The tree is about forty feet in height and eighteen inches in circumference when full grown, and the natives use its juice, as we do milk, it being perfectly harmless and mixing well with water. The Chinese, have a tree, they call "Kiriaghuma," which yields a fluid in all respects like milk, while in the forests of Para grows a tree called the "Massendendron," which gives a milk-like juice. It can be kept for an indefinite time and shows no tendency to become sour. On the other hand, certain trees in the valleys of Aragua and in Canaguá yield a similar fluid, which, when exposed to the air, begins to form a kind of cheese which very soon becomes sour. In the Canary Islands there is a tree called "Tabana Doice," of which the milk, thickened into a jelly, is considered a delicacy.

25 SORTERS BUSY AT TOBACCO WAREHOUSE

Twenty-five sorters are busy at the warehouse of the newly organized Rock County Tobacco Growers' association handling the tobacco which is being brought in daily by farmers. "Everything is going along nicely," said William J. Pember, secretary of the association, this afternoon. Mr. Pember stated he could make no estimates of the amount of tobacco which had been brought in since the work was started Monday. Members of the organization have drawn lots and are bringing in their crops in the order of their numbers.

More sorters may be placed at work this week in order to handle the incoming tobacco.

French Orphan to Be Adopted by Benefit

The benefit dance to be given at Avalon Friday evening is for the adoption of a French orphan and is not a Red Cross affair, as has been stated. Every penny spent at the dance will help take care of a French orphan.

'ADORN' FACE WITH MUSTACHE.
Hairy Ainus Would Seem to Have Peculiar Ideas as to What Adds to Feminine Beauty.

The Ainus, the "Celtic" race of Japan, live in the island of Yeddo, although the race has become so reduced that it is estimated, there are now not more than 16,000 or 17,000 of them left in the country.

The most noticeable peculiarity about Ainu women is that they have tattooed upon their upper and lower lips what resembles a mustache. The women are not considered attractive and their matrimonial prospects are quite injured, without this decoration.

The mustache is begun when the girl is quite a child, until it extends partly across the cheek, the material used being the soot from burning birch bark. The face is cut and the black rubbed in. Afterward it is washed in a solution of ash bark liquor to fix the color.

The Ainu women are said to be usually finely formed, straight and well developed, with small hands and feet. Their eyes are a beautiful soft brown, their hair black and most luxuriant and their complexion olive, with often a deep, rich color in their cheeks.

The native cloth—of which their garments are made—is woven from the fiber of the bark of the elm tree.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

WAR RESPONSIBILITY REPORT IS READY; NO LEGAL FINDING

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Paris, March 6.—The report of the peace conference commission to determine the responsibility for the authors of the war, it is understood will be completed tonight.

The commission's report, it is understood, while fixing moral responsibility, fails to find legal responsibility because there is no precedent or no law governing the case or no court existing to try the accused if legal guilt were found to be evident.

The peace conference commission on reparations of damages examined today questions concerning reparation and the method of payment of damages by enemy states.

The supreme council, after hearing a statement by Jules Cambon, decided unanimously yesterday to reject the demands of the minor powers with limited interests for greater representation on the finance and economic plans which are about to be formed.

MONEY RECEIVED BY CITY TREASURER

City Treasurer George Muenchow has received from the state $234.66 he divided equally between the commercial, domestic science and manual training departments of the local high school.

Mr. Muenchow received $234.66 from the high school aid fund. The money was turned over to the general fund of the high school.

Treasurer Muenchow yesterday turned over to County Treasurer Church, $26,119.44 in state taxes.

J. H. S. Placed on Chicago University Accredited List

Janesville high school has been approved for the relationship of cooperation with the University of Chicago according to word received this morning at Sup't H. H. Faust. Mr. Faust says it means increased advantages of local teachers and pupils.

The privilege of attending the summer school sessions of the university at half the usual tuition rates is one of the features of the relationship. It also means that the local high school will be on the accredited list of the Chicago institution.

Garber to Speak at Footville Meeting

Footville, March 6.—Prof. L. F. Garber of the agricultural department of the university will address a farmers' meeting to be held in Footville, Saturday afternoon. Affairs and limiting problems will be discussed by him and it is probable that a large number of farmers in that section of the county will hear him.

OBITUARY

Albert Krueger, aged 21 years, passed away suddenly yesterday morning following a hemorrhage.

Deceased was born in Germany in 1897, and came to this country in 1898.

He is survived by his aged wife of this city; two sons, Albert of this city, and Herman, Foreston, Minn.; four daughters, Mrs. C. O. Schopf and Miss Emily Krueger, Janesville; Mrs. Wm. Berger, Venango, Neb., and Mrs. H. S. Kath, Missoula, Mont.

Private funeral services will be held from the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. O. Schopf, 124 Milwaukee avenue, at two o'clock Saturday afternoon. Rev. E. A. L. Treu officiating. Interment in Oak Hill cemetery. Friends are asked to omit flowers.

Joseph Arnold and Daughter.
Funeral services for the late Joseph A. Arnold and his six-year-old daughter, Helen, were held from the home of his parents on Forest-Park boulevard at one-thirty o'clock this afternoon. Rev. F. F. Lewis officiating. Interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery.

The pall bearers were: George Hammes, James Bovie, Carl and Fred Cane, Bert Hill and Axel Cutts.

Italians To Be Sent To France.
Rome.—Thirty thousand Italian workmen are to be sent to France to work in the devastated region, the Idea Nazionale announces.

CAPITAL DEBUTANTE BOOSTS MILK FUND

Miss Courtney Lettis, Washington, in garb of French milk maid.

A carnival and ball is to be staged in Washington soon for the benefit of the Free Milk for France fund. Miss Courtney Lettis, one of Washington's prettiest debutantes, will be one of the stars in the carnival. She is shown above in the costume she will wear.

Extra Interest

All money deposited in our Savings Department the 1st ten days of this month will draw interest from March 1st, payable July 1st.

The Rock County Savings & Trust Co

ATTENTION W. O. W.

Regular meeting Camp No. 127 will be held Friday evening, March 7th, at Eagles hall. All members urged to be present. Owing to the death of Sov. Joe Arnold dance has been postponed until further date.
JAMES BOVIE, Clerk.

FRESH FISH

Silver Herring, lb.10c Dressed Perch, lb.14c
Skinned Bullheads, lb.24c
Hullbut Steak, lb.30c
Fresh Trout, lb.25c
Genuine Boneless Codfish, lb. 35c
3 Macaroni 25c
1-lb. pkg. Corn Starch10c
Heinz Spaghetti, cooked ready to serve, can15c and 25c
Monarch Lobster, can35c
2 California Sardines in Tomato Sauce 25c
Klipped Herring, can25c

ROESLING BROS.

Cor. Center & Western Aves.
SEVEN PHONES, ALL 128.

Pure Cod

The best part of the best fish in bulk at 35c lb.
In 1-lb. box, boned, 40c.
In 2-lb. box, boned, 75c.
Large or small genuine breakfast Mackerel, 30c lb.
Small, weight about 1/2 lb.
Large about 1 1/2 lbs.
Cooked Haddock in glass, ready to heat and eat, 35c.
Finest Red Alaska Salmon, 30c can.
Finest large Mustard Sardines 20c can.
Finest large Soused Sardines 25c can, a great appetizer. Try them.
Soused Mackerel, very fine, 25c can.
Fine White Fresh Mackerel, 25c can.
Fresh Oysters just received, 35c pt.
Largest Fresh Oysters, pt. can, 45c.
Finest Oyster Crackers 20c lb.

Dedrick Bros.

Large Loaf White Occident Bread 14c

Large Loaf Raisin Bread 14c

Swift's Premium Oleo. 35c lb.

No better oleo sold in Janesville. Salted just right. 4000 lbs. sold last month.

1-lb. box Codfish35c
2 cans Corn25c
Cal. Navel Oranges doz. 50c
2 pkgs. Mince Meat25c
Large can Pumpkin15c
Red Salmon, can30c

E. R. WINSLOW CASH GROCERY

24 N. Main.
Rock Co. Phone 372.
Old Phone 504.

Shop in The Gazette before you shop in the stores.

WITH THE WOMEN OF TODAY

Bessie Love.

And now she has played so many wild women who says she has no desire to go back to the sweet young thing again.

TO WRITE FOR STAGE.
William C. Deallie announces that he is writing a new drama for the stage. This is his first effort in this direction since he turned his pen to typewriter to "Strengthen" and "The Woman."

A REQUEST.
Priscilla Dean wants a scenario in which she dies. She says: "Every movie star I know has died at least once in the movies, and I don't want to have anything on me."

WHOLE OF NEXT.
Niles Welch, who supported Norma Talmadge in "The Secret of the Storm" and "The Girl in the Red Velvet" in George Washington, is playing opposite Ed Bennett in a picture now being made.

SALLY CRUTE WASN'T ALWAYS THIS.
Sally Crute hasn't always been a bold, bad woman on the screen, although she has been chosen for these roles for them—Metro in "An Eve for an Eve" and J. Stuart Blackton in "The House Divided." In fact, when Miss Crute was first starting out she played innocent roles. In the old Edison days she was always the blue-ribboned, white-muslin-robed heroine. Then, one day, Miss Crute decided to play the role of a woman who had been seduced by a man, and she made her villainous debut.

SERGEANT GRIDLEY BACK FROM FRANCE

Sergeant Fred Gridley, who sold his interest in the Third Milk company and enlisted as a private in the United States army arrived in Janesville this morning after spending the past eleven months in the finance department of the quartermaster corps and has been stationed at La Rochelle, France.

"I have seen many pretty sights in my life," Sergeant Gridley said, "but the most beautiful sight of all is the statue of Liberty. I cannot express my feelings when standing on the deck of the transport I caught sight of Miss Liberty."

Sergeant Gridley was one of the first Janesville men to join the army. After a short training period in France he was sent to France with one of the first contingents of American soldiers and since that time he has been stationed there.

"CLEAN LIFE" TOPIC AT BOYS' CLUB DINNER

"Clean Living" was the topic of a discussion following the bi-monthly banquet of the employed boys' club, the Y. M. C. A. last night. Norman P. St. John, who was connected with the association work at Great Lakes for several months, and who later enlisted in the navy, described the life of a junkie. Robert Cunningham, who has supervision of the club, told of his life in the navy, with special reference to the clean lives led by the average soldier. Secretary Beaumont talked on the same subject.

Dan McCluskey, newly elected president of the club, presided. The other officers took their respective posts. A course of study is to be mapped out as soon as books for that purpose arrive.

The next meeting of the club will be held Monday, 7:30 p. m.

School Days Revived at Missionary Meeting

Memories of "dear old school days" were revived last evening, when the stern teacher, Mrs. F. T. Richards called her pupils together and proceeded with the lessons of the day. The event was the meeting of the Home Missionary society of the Methodist church. The lessons to be studied pertained to the Isabella Thoburn college at Lucknow, India.

The class in geography had one especially able pupil in Mabel Dumm, who described the position of the college. The history lesson pertained to that of the school and in this Mrs. Barfoot took a leading part. In the spelling lessons which included the names of the faculty of the college, Mrs. George Jacobs was the prize speller. In the arithmetic lesson, which had to do with the financial problems, Mrs. Lane came off with flying colors.

The reading lesson was given by

AMUSEMENTS

Notices Furnished by the Theaters.

MYERS THEATRE.
"The Birth of a Race."
Here Soon.
The biggest photoplay production of the age, "The Birth of a Race" will be presented four nights at the Myers Theatre starting March 6, the day after tomorrow. This is an exceptionally successful and lengthy engagement in Chicago's most exclusive theatre, the Blackstone and the Playhouse. Over one million dollars was spent to make this very out of the ordinary picture play and its spectacular features outdo anything heretofore seen in any photoplay production. Along with its romance, its smiles and its thrills, this exceptional picture play carries us back to the creation, thence to Noah and the Flood, to Moses, to the Crucifixion, to Columbus, to the declaration of independence, to Lincoln, and into the great world war and out into the sunshine of peace, with a better understanding and a closer brotherhood between all races and nationalities. "The Birth of a Race" comes in its original form in every respect, in no sense a number two or duplicate production but intact as seen in Chicago, and the famous Playhouse in Theatre and the famous Playhouse in Theatre. The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

MYERS THEATRE.
"Friendly Enemies."
Here Soon.
The biggest and greatest success, will be seen at the Myers Theatre on Monday evening, March 11 following its six months run at the Woods Theatre, Chicago.
The story is of two beloved old quarreling friends, Men, staunch comrades of many years, always make delightful subjects for legitimate comedy. I never heard of two old ladies in the drama whose exquisite fidelity and endurance of each other's failings could be made to affect an audience. Nobody would believe two women could endure each other through the years. The pair painted by Shipman and Hoffman as inseparable partners and pals, are a couple of German Dromedaries who have made fortunes in America and brought up their families in New York. Both are sturdy types. One is a narrow, kilted, burly done Teuton who keeps his solid body done full of German ideas of the Germans. The other is the kind of hyphenated citizen we always respect and sometimes adore since our side of the world is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them. They have a daughter who is a full-fledged American, a girl who is full of them.

Where You See the Big Feature Pictures First.

MYERS THEATRE

FOUR DAYS, STARTING

THURSDAY, MARCH 6th

TWICE DAILY

MATINEE, 2:30. EVENING, 8:15.

THE GREATEST PHOTOPLAY ON EARTH

WONDERFUL PRODUCTION SUPERIOR IN DIRECTION

THE BIRTH OF A RACE

POWERFUL IN THEME MASSIVE IN DETAIL

THOUSANDS SAW IT IN CHICAGO

—AT THE—

BLACKSTONE THEATRE and PLAYHOUSE

THEY MARVELED AT IT AND SAW IT AGAIN

AUGMENTED SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Matinee, 25c and 50c. Plus War Tax.

PRICES: 25c, 50c and 75c. A few at $1.00.

MYERS ONE NIGHT TUE. M'CH. 11

OPERA HOUSE

A. H. WOODS Presents

THE SENSATIONAL COMEDY SUCCESS

FRIENDLY ENEMIES

By Samuel Shipman and Aaron Hoffman.

—A PLAY FOR THE NATION—

Endorsed by President Wilson.

The President said: "All that I can say has already been said most admirably in this beautiful play. All the sentiments I could express have been admirably represented—sentiments that, I hope, will soon grip the world."

Unanimously approved by the entire Press of New York and Chicago

It is a play about human beings—familiar everyday men and women—Not stage puppets—it will make you laugh—it will make you weep—it will make you think—it has the laughs of "Potash" and the tears of "The Music Master"—It is the kind of play that audiences cheer and that people go to see again and again—it has become more than a success, it has become a kind of institution—An event.

A COMPANY OF MERIT—AN ADEQUATE PRODUCTION. COMPLETE IN EVERY DETAIL.

PRICES: First main orchestra, $2.00; balance orchestra, $1.50; First 2 rows balcony, $1.00; next 4 rows balcony, 75c; remainder, 50c; gallery, 25c. War tax extra.

Seats on sale Saturday at 10 a. m. Mail orders now.

"YERE WE IS, RIGHT BACK HOME"

Members of famous "Fighting 15th" which arrived in the U. S. recently.

The famous colored regiment known as the "Fighting Fifteenth" arrived back in New York recently from service abroad. This regiment won well earned fame for its daring and efficient fighting. And not even the grime, tragedy and fatigue of war could take the smiles off the faces of these men. The German helmet, one of them wears jauntily hints at what happened to the Germans they met.

Get the habit of reading the Classified Ad. If you have anything to buy or sell, use a Classified Ad.

BEVERLY

TONIGHT

WILLIAM DESMOND

Supported by

Pretty LOUISE LOVELY

—IN—

"Life's a Funny Proposition"

—ALSO—

PEARL WHITE

—IN—

"THE LIGHTNING RAIDER"

FOURTH EPISODE

"Through Doors of Steel"

FRIDAY—ONE DAY ONLY

FRANK KEENAN

America's Greatest Character Actor

Plays the Dual Role of John Lynch, the Honest Gold-Seeker and 'Big' Rivers, Arch-Thief and Road Agent

—IN—

"THE MIDNIGHT STAGE"

A Western Drama of the California "60's"

—ALSO—

"DITMARS NATURE STUDIES"

SATURDAY

LILLIAN WALKER

—IN—

"THE EMBARRASSMENT OF RICHES"

—ALSO—

"THE SCREEN TELEGRAM."

APOLLO THEATRE

ONE SHOW ONLY 8:15

Big Double Bill TONIGHT

In addition to our regular vaudeville bill we will present

ALICE BRADY

—IN—

"THE DEATH DANCE"

A story of dance and song, of sorrow and tears, and an ending that thrills.

FEATURE VAUDEVILLE

Hazel Heston & Co. GAFFNEY & DALE

Musical Comedy Six People. Comedy Singing and Music.

Bernard Carman & Company GUS ANDREWS

Sensational Equilibrists. Swedish Comedian and Accordionist.

Matinee, 15c. Evening, 15c and 25c.

MAJESTIC

Perfect Ventilation—Warmth—Comfort

Complete Change of Program Daily.

6 REELS—TODAY—6 REELS

HARRY MOREY in TANGLED LIVES

A story remarkable and fascinating in its portrayal of the loves and tragedies in the life of a strong man. Loved by two other beautiful women and loathed by his wife—What would a man do?

—ALSO—

"KNOW THY WIFE"

A Clever Christie Comedy.

TOMORROW

BRYANT WASHBURN in "KIDDER & CO."

SPECIAL

FARNUM in "LES MISERABLES" Tuesday.

A wonderful 9-reel picture of HUGO'S MASTERPIECE

How Old is First Auto?
According to Ernest Saut, a French journalist, who has made a study of the history of the automobile, more than six centuries ago a man endeavored to build a "horseless carriage."

Had Had Experience.
Charley was to have a birthday and his grandmother asked him what he needed. "Oh, don't give me what I need," he pleaded. "I'll get that from mother anyway."

If twenty modern houses were available this afternoon, they could be rented before you sat down at dinner tonight.

Turn that vacant lot into a site for a home for people who need it.

BASKETBALL

ARMORY

TONIGHT

LAKOTA CARDINALS

VS.

BELOIT FAIRIES

300 Beloit fans led by Fairbanks-Morse band will stage parade before game. Come out and watch the local warriors go over the top. Biggest game of season.

Band Concert from 8 to 9 Dancing After the Game.

Admission, 50c.

A WOMAN'S BUSINESS

AS THE WOMAN SEES IT.

Janet came back from her business jaunt to Philadelphia in a most pleasant glow of feeling for Roy Nicoll. At the Feminist convention she had tasted that power which comes from position; she showed her position to him. Ordinarily a woman of Janet's caliber would feel a sense of embarrassment at owing anything to a man not belonging to her. But Roy Nicoll made her feel he was getting full value from her service, and here was the thankfulness of the beneficiary as well as of the well rewarded employee.

Walt met her at the train with not a word of Roy Nicoll's proposition to him. He had a shrewd idea that Nicoll had expected he would refuse it. He could not help feeling that, while Roy Nicoll intended or not, he had planted the seeds of a distressing situation between Janet and Walt when she learned of his refusal. On the bare chance, however, that Nicoll would mention it to her about it, Walt did not mention it himself.

Janet saw the worn look of her husband's face, and her own good fortune made her heart ache for him. Why, then, he was working so hard, she did not know. He was working so hard, she did not know. He was working so hard, she did not know.

She was still asking herself this question and feeling the dull ache of the answer when she entered her office that afternoon. Nicoll came in to confer on matters of business. In the course of his outline for the magazine, he said:

"I want to run a serial story and play it up high. It will make the reputation of the writer. It is not known. I suppose you know I want Walt to write that novel."

Janet's heart stopped beating for one joyous moment.

"Roy! How splendid of you!" Nicoll smiled deprecatingly.

"Evidently it is not so very splendid of me," he said. "For—He

Spring Straws of French Design Are Small, Flowered and Colorful

By ELOISE.

The days have arrived when the mere thought of a velvet hat is depressing. But Paris is at least determined that such gloom will be quickly dispelled and the brilliant colored spring straws that are being imported would cheer one up on the coldest, rainiest spring day. The Paris milliners are expressing their joy at the revival of interest in fashions over there by creating gorgeous little chapeaux in every color of the rainbow with bright flowers and ribbon decorations. The small jaunty hat seems to be the favorite. It is offered in every conceivable shape, but the turban is perhaps the favored one. Here are three of the spring's newest hats. They are copies of imported French designs. The picturesque Watteau shape above is of blue crepe combined with the same color straw. A pale gold ribbon trims it and a floral ornament is placed directly in the front. Purple Milan is used to make the striking little hat at the right while white ribbon and roses of the same shade form the trimming. The very Parisian little turban at the left is cherry or victory red straw with flowers encircling the crown. The flowers and ribbon used shade from a cherry red to a victory or rather purple shade of blue.

Household Hints

MENU HINT.
Stewed Peas.
Cooked Cereal.
Waffles and Syrup.
Coffee.
Luncheon.
Brown Bread and Cream Cheese.
Lettuce Salad.
Baked Apple and Cream.
Warm Milk to drink.
Dinner.
Cream of Corn Soup.
Spinach.
Butter.
French Bread.
Baked Cocoa Pudding with Raisins.
Tea.

RECIPE FOR A DAY.
Baked Cocoa Pudding with Raisins.—Two and one-half cups milk, three tablespoons flour, three tablespoons cocoa, one-half cup chopped seeded raisins, one teaspoon butter substitute, one-half teaspoon salt. Put two cups of milk on to boil, mix flour, sugar, cocoa and salt with half cup of milk until smooth, add to the boiling milk and boil five minutes; then add the raisins. Brush baked dish with butter, pour in the mixture and bake in moderate oven 30 minutes. Serve warm with vanilla sauce.

Gingerbread.—One-half cup sugar, one egg, one cup molasses, or tablespoon shortening, one cup sour milk, one teaspoon soda, one teaspoon cinnamon and flour to thicken.

Cream Cakes.—Cream one cup sugar, one-half cup shortening, yolks of two eggs, one-half cup sweet milk, one teaspoon vanilla. Sift one and one-half cups flour, add one teaspoon baking powder and pinch salt. Mix into dough with large spoon. Sprinkle with flour and roll out about one-quarter inch thick, cut very small with cookie cutter. Grease the bottom of your gem pans. Press each cake over the bottom of each little gem and bake a light brown. When turned out to cool they will look like tiny cups. Make a filling of one egg, one cup sweet milk, one cup sugar, butter size of walnut, three tablespoons condensed milk, one teaspoon milk, pinch salt, one teaspoon vanilla or lemon. Roll all together, fill thick. Fill each little cone with filling. Beat the whites of the two eggs stiff with

Mint Jell

Try Mint Jiffy-Jell with roast lamb or cold meats. It is vastly better than mint sauce. Try Jiffy-Jell desserts with their real fruit flavors in essence form, in vials. Each is so rich in condensed fruit juice that it makes a real fruit dainty. Yet they cost no more than old-style gelatine desserts.

Jiffy-Jell

10 Flavors, at Your Grocer's
2 Packages for 25 Cents

Heart and Home Problems

By ELIZABETH THOMPSON.
LETTERS MAY BE ADDRESSED TO MRS. THOMPSON, IN CARE OF THE GAZETTE.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of twenty. I was going with a soldier about three months ago. I was for France. I did not know him more than one month when he asked me to marry him. He came back from France. I told him I could not promise. Because I did not know him. I would meet him long absence.

I was not sure whether it was real love or just a youth's fancy, but now I know it was real love.

When we were alone he asked me to kiss him to prove it. He said I would meet him long absence. Did I do right or not? Do you think I meant what he said?

The last night he was here he tried to get me to promise him I would wait for him. I did not promise and only said that if my love was the same when he returned my answer would be yes.

Do you think he was in earnest? This is what puts me in doubt. I received a card from New York and one when he reached England. Then he wrote a letter and asked me to write as soon as possible. I did so, and also wrote a letter to him. He did not answer. Six months elapsed and a card came saying he was one of the lucky ones in this war and when he got home he would come to see me. At first I started not to answer it, but a week later I did. What would you have done in this case? Did I do right? I mean what I wrote to him here. Do you think he will come to see me? BROKEN-HEARTED.

When several months or a year have passed, and you have not seen the soldier as a passing fancy. If you

HEALTH TALKS

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.
LETTERS MAY BE ADDRESSED TO DR. BRADY, IN CARE OF THE GAZETTE.

CATARACT—AND THE EYE.

Cataract is an opacity, a lack of transparency, of the crystalline lens. We all wear glasses. The crystalline lens is a powerful double convex lens placed just behind the pupil of the eye and its convexity is just half of altered (at least in the first half of life) for focusing the eye for varying distances. As we grow more dignified, that is stiff, unbending, hard of heart and hard of artery the crystalline lens, partakes of the general hardening, and in some instances it overdoes the thing a bit, so that its substance undergoes a degeneration which renders it more or less opaque. Cataract that consists of a new growth of membrane that forms on the eye. It is simply a blurring of the lenses we all wear. It usually occurs in persons along in years, sometimes infants and children have cataract produced by some hereditary condition or by injury to the eye.

In the early stage of cataract the casual observer can note no change in the appearance of the eye, but the patient merely notices an increasing difficulty in reading. Sometimes the patient notices that images are doubled, a light appearing as two lights, for example. Exposure to sunlight dazzles, and the patient finds that vision is best in a rather dim light. Many cases do not greatly impair vision and require no treatment, especially when they happen to be limited to the borders of the lens, leaving a fairly clear central portion. It is an unfortunate popular notion that cataract necessarily means approaching blindness. This is correct for we know that cataract may cause only moderate impairment of sight and never become complete.

Persons with diabetes or Bright's disease, or disease of the arteries are more subject to cataract than normal individuals. The lens suffers in its nutrition by reason of the constitutional disease. Men working about furnaces or exposed to electric light of great brilliancy, and persons who overexpose their eyes for work without frequent intervals of relaxation are especially subject to cataract.

The cure of cataract usually requires the removal of the lens or its absorption as the result of an operation. Such operations are practically painless under cocaine. Of course, good vision requires that the patient shall wear suitable lenses to take the place of the crystalline lens after removal, which enable the patient to read the finest type.

It is no longer considered advisable to wait until ripeness of a cataract.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.
Complete List of Reducing Medicaments.

Kindly publish your column as many liquids, creams and prescriptions as possible, which, if persistent, will do away with any excess of fat on the body (Joy).

ANSWER.—Oh, Joy, it can't be done. No cream, liquid or prescription applied to any part of the body will reduce stopped.

"Yes, go on!" Janet cried, her heart exulting for Walt's sake.

"Well, Walt refused me," Nicoll said.

Janet stared. Then her eyes dropped. Could Walt be so childish as to refuse that splendid chance for name, money and relief from the depression of failure, because it was Roy who offered the chance?

"Why did he refuse?" she asked, a lump in her throat.

Nicoll shrugged his shoulders.

"I am not very clear on that," he said. "I think he has some conscientious scruples or something."

So joyous had been the uplift of Janet's heart the moment before that she felt faint with reaction at the sudden hope that was dashed so needlessly.

She could hardly wait to get home to ask Walt about it. But when she did reach him she could not say a word to him on the subject. Walt, however, knew what was in her mind and told her as simply as he could why he had refused to write the serial.

"I'm either going to write the truth or—go back to boosting adulterated food and fake cancer cures at the advertising game," he said through set teeth. "It was not only because of the bad health and the miracle cures, but because I gave it up, Janet. It was that writing lies is like a drug. It kills the man in one. 'Louise' in that story of mine is a parasitic kind of wife and kills the best in men. Nicoll wants me to say she is good to have around and to say it in a novel! Do you want me to do it?"

Janet clasped her hands so the knuckles whitened.

"I want you to do anything that will take you out of obscurity—out of penury—that will—"

"Tant will put me by your side in the eyes of the world!" Walt said, nodding. "I know, dear. But I cannot—in the way you ask!"

(To be continued.)

SIDE TALKS

—BY—RUTH CAMERON

NOTHING BUT A COLD.

One of the members of our family felt a cold coming on the other day. She didn't feel sick, just sort of wretched, especially in the region of her nose. Without an hour's delay she went around to the doctor's, who gave her some medicine which she choked off the cold that she had only a day or two discomfort from it.

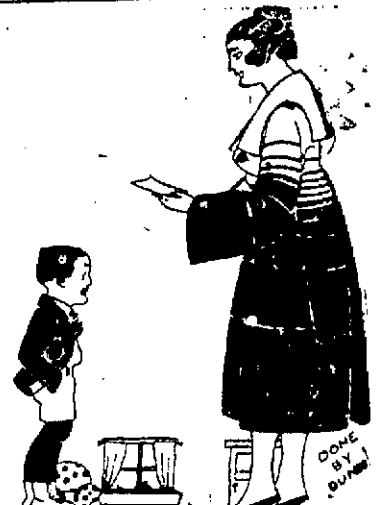

We used to think it so queer. Two years ago would she have thought of going to the doctor? Certainly not. She would have said, "It's nothing but a cold," and either, dosed it with some uncertain home remedy, or sat back and let the cold run its course. And that means that she wouldn't have been out of the woods for a week. Besides which, at least one of the members of our family and probably more would have had a cold, too.

I can well remember when I was a child hearing older people say, (that was before we had learned to blame everything to microbes) "Jan! it's queer how a cold runs through a family."

Truly, we shall not have suffered entirely in vain if we learn to stop saying, "Nothing but a cold."

They have a "Cold" Room.

I know of a family in which there are several small children, in which there is a "cold room." They are

—TOMMY KNEW.

Teacher—There are four seasons—winter, spring, summer and autumn. Tommy, tell me what season it is now.

Tommy—Football season.

Joe Crews at Work.

La Crosse, March 6.—Joe crews are working day and night on the Milwaukee river during the present cold snap in order to finish the harvest before it grows warm.

NOTHING SO EASY TO DIGEST

nothing so deliciously nourishing and strengthening as those crisp brown little loaves of well baked

Shredded Wheat

They contain the entire wheat grain, nothing added, nothing taken away. A whole wheat food, ready cooked ready-to-eat. Pour hot milk over two or three of these biscuits and you have a hot dish that will start the day right and sustain you in work or play. Salt or sweeten it to suit the taste.

The Golden Eagle

Levy's

An Unusually Large and Attractive Offering of Spring Silks

In presenting these high class novelties we take much pride in doing so, as only in the larger cities will you find an assortment like this. The leading silks for spring here represented are Flowered and Figured Georgette, La Jerz, and Moon Glo Silks, Embroidered Georgettes, Plain and Plaid Barquette Satins. Every one of these silks listed will be very popular for spring.

Extremely Popular Wool Jersey Dresses for Spring

See large show window display of stunning and exclusive models; all very moderately priced; sizes 16 to 42; all the wanted spring colors.

Silk and Satin Underwear

for spring. An assortment that is simply beautiful. It is hard to express in words the true merits of this line of merchandise. "Elegant" doesn't begin to describe it, you have just simply got to see it to appreciate it. The quality of silk and satins used, the neatness, the workmanship, and the pretty designs will be appreciated on sight. Moderately priced from each. $1.00 to $10.00

Stunning New Sweaters

FOR SPRING AND SUMMER WEAR

Quality Silks, in all the popular pastel colorings; models right up to the minute from New York's fashion exhibit; specially priced. $16.50 to $30.00

The New Slip On Styles made of fine Shetland Wool, are selling readily. The models made up in contrasting colors, are very attractive; priced, each. $4.50 to $10.00

Jansville, Phones
Bell, 12; R. C., Red 596.

Madison
30 W. Main St.

Andelson Bros

"The House Of Courtesy"

13 WEST MILWAUKEE STREET

A Great Sale of Silk Blouses

$2.95

including Embroidered Georgette Crepe Blouses in the newest styles, Tub Silk Blouses. The variety of models is an important feature.

Blouses with sailor collars and with round and V shape necks, collarless Blouses.

This is a remarkable Blouse Sale. Sizes to 46.

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

His Love Story

By MARIE VAN VORST

Illustrations by RAY WAITERS

Copyright by the Bobbs-Merrill Co.

Tremont cried to him: "Sabron, mon vieux Charles, reviens-toi! We are in sight of human beings!"

But Sabron gave no sign that he heard or cared.

Throughout the journey across the desert, Pitchoune had ridden at his will and according to his taste, sometimes journeying for the entire day perched upon Tremont's camel. He sat like a little figurehead or a mascot, with ears pointed northward and his keen nose sniffing the desert air. Sometimes he would take the same position on one of the mules that carried Sabron's litter, at his master's feet. There he would lie hour after hour, with his soft eyes fixed with understanding sympathy upon Sabron's face.

He was, as he had been to Fatou Anni, a kind of fetish—the caravan adored him. Now from his position at Sabron's feet, he crawled up and licked his master's hand.

"Charles!" Tremont cried, and lifted the soldier's hand.

Sabron opened his eyes. He was sane. The glimmer of a smile touched his lips. He said Tremont's name, recognized him. "Are you home?" he asked weakly. "Is it France?"

Tremont turned and dashed away a tear.

He drew the curtains of the litter and now walked beside it, his legs feeling like cotton and his heart beating.

As they came up toward the encampment, two people rode out to meet them, two women in white riding habits, on stallions, and as the evening breeze fluttered the veils from their helmets, they seemed to be flags of

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, a well-known physician in a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that recuperation of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

RHEUMATICS NO LONGER IN DOUBT

"NEUTRONE PRESCRIPTION 99" CURES AND KEEPS THEM CURED

Rheumatism had been considered incurable until Neutrone Prescription 99, a combination of rheumatic reducing elements, was placed in the hands of its thousands of sufferers.

"Neutrone Prescription 99" is a specific positive in its action, quickly removing all aches and pains in inflamed joints and muscles, and limbering them up in a way that would surprise you.

Neutrone Prescription 99 will relieve the worst symptoms in the most severe cases of Rheumatism within one or two weeks. It is a sure cure. It has over two million testimonials. Nothing will do more for this prescription than the Mail orders filled on it.

Smith Drug Co., and leading druggists everywhere.

WOMEN ARE BOOSTING IT YOU CAN'T FOOL THEM

Once you have shown them and got their confidence they will stick through thick and thin to what they know and believe is a good thing.

Hundreds of women in our city are going around today with a glow of health and a glow of life and health where before each day was one long "nervous drag of misery."

As one woman expressed it: "It's not the work you do, it's the way you feel that makes the difference. You can't feel like a slave when you go to bed at night, and you can't sleep and get up in the morning half dead. Believe me, I have taken a load, no ambition, thin, haggard and pale, an old woman before my time. Look at me now. I am just bubbling over with good spirits, the picture of health, cheeks rosy and full of the color of life, while my phosphate-fed nerves are as steady as a clock, nothing worries me. I sleep like a top. Take it from me, I want Phosphate Iron to get all of the credit, too much cannot be said for its praise, and all my friends are boosting it."

There is no need of any man or woman going around in a nervous state, feeling or any form of nervousness, if they take a brace, and stack up a package of phosphate iron. It will give you up and make you feel like a live wire once more, so get busy.

Special Notice: To insure doctors and their patients getting the Genuine Phosphate Iron we have put in capsules only, so do not allow dealers to sell you pills or tablets.

Smith Drug Co. and leading druggists everywhere.

PETEY DINK—PETEY WAS LOOKING FOR THE LITTLE ONES HE'D SEEN IN SALOON WINDOWS.

welcome.

Under his helmet Tremont was red and burned. He had a short, rough growth of beard.

Therese de la Maine and Julia Redmond rode up. Tremont recognized them, and came forward, hand smiling, and pointed with his left hand toward the litter; but he went directly up to Madame de la Maine, who sat immovably on her little stallion. Tremont seemed to gather her in his arms. He lifted her down to him.

Julia Redmond's eyes were on the litter, whose curtains were stirring in the breeze. Hammet Abou, with a profound salaam, came forward to her. "Mademoiselle," he said, respectfully, "he lives. I have kept my word."

Pitchoune sprang from the litter and ran over the sands to Julia Redmond. She dismounted from her horse alone and called him: "Pitchoune! Pitchoune!" Kneeling down on the desert, she stooped to caress him, and he crouched at her feet, licking her hands.

CHAPTER XXV.

As Handsome Does.

When Sabron next opened his eyes he fancied that he was at home in his old room in Rouen, in the house where he was born, in the little room in which, as a child, dressed in his dimity night gown, he had sat up in his bed by candle light to learn his letters from the cookery book.

The room was snowy white. Outside the window he heard a bird sing, and near by, he heard a dog's smothered bark. Then he knew that he was not at home or a child, for with the languor and weakness came his memory. A quiet nurse in a hospital dress was sitting by his bed, and Pitchoune rose from the foot of the bed and looked at him adoringly.

He was in a hospital in Algiers. "Pitchoune," he murmured, not knowing the name of his other companion, "where are we, old fellow?"

The nurse replied in an agreeable Anglo-Saxon French:

"You are in a French hospital in Algiers, sir, and doing well."

Tremont came up to him. "Remember you," Sabron said. "You have been near me a dozen times lately."

"You must not talk, mon vieux."

"But I feel as though I must talk a great deal. Didn't you come for me into the desert?"

Tremont, healthy, vigorous, tanned, gay and cheerful, seemed good looking to poor Sabron, who gazed up at him with touching gratitude.

"I think I remember everything. I think I shall never forget it," he said, and lifted his hand feebly. Robert de Tremont took it. "Haven't we traveled far together, Tremont?"

"Yes," nodded the other, affected, "but you must sleep now. We will talk about it over our cigars and liquors soon."

Sabron smiled, faintly. His clear mind was regaining its balance, and thoughts began to sweep over it cruelly fast. He looked at his rescuer, and to him the other's radiance meant simply that he was engaged to Miss Redmond. Of course that was natural. Sabron tried to accept it and to be glad for the happiness of the man who had rescued him. But as he thought this, he wondered why he had been rescued and shut his eyes so that Tremont might not see his weakness. He said hesitatingly:

"I am haunted by a melody, a tune. Could you help me? It won't come."

"It's not the 'Marseillaise'?" asked the other, sitting down by his side and pulling Pitchoune's ears.

"Oh, no!"

"There will be singing in the ward shortly. A Red Cross nurse comes to sing to the patients. She may help you to remember."

Sabron renounced in despair. Haunting, tantalizing in his brain and elusive, the notes began and stopped, began and stopped. He wanted to ask his friend a thousand questions. How he had come to him, why he had come to him, how he knew. He gave it all up and dozed, and while he slept the sweet sleep of those who are to recover, he heard the sound of a woman's voice in the distance, singing, one after another, familiar melodies, and finally he heard the "Kyrie Eleison," and to its music Sabron again fell asleep.

The next day he received a visitor. It was not an easy matter to introduce visitors to his bedside, for Pitchoune objected. Pitchoune received the Marquise d'Esclignac with great displeasure.

"Is he a thoroughbred?" asked the Marquise d'Esclignac.

"He has behaved like one," replied the officer.

There was a silence. The Marquise d'Esclignac was wondering what her niece saw in the pale man so near still to the borders of the other world.

"You will be leaving the army, of course," she murmured, looking at him interestedly.

"Madame!" said the Capitaine de Sabron, with his blood—all that was in him—rising to his cheeks.

"I mean that France has done nothing for you. France did not rescue you and you may feel like seeking a more—another career."

Sabron could not reply. Her ribbons and flowers and jewels shook in his eyes like a kaleidoscope. His flush had made him more natural. In his invalid state, with his hair brushed back from his fine brow, there was something spiritual and beautiful about him. The Marquise d'Esclignac looked on a man who had been far and who had determined of his own accord to come back. She said more gently, putting her hand affectionately over his:

"Get strong, monsieur—get well. Eat all the good things we are making for you. I dare say that the army cannot spare you. It needs brave hearts."

Sabron was so agitated after her departure that the nurse said he must receive no more visits for several days, and he meditated and longed and thought and wondered, and nearly cursed the life that had brought him back to a world which must be lonely for him henceforth.

When he sat up in bed he was a shadow. He had a book to read and read a few lines of it, but he put it down as the letters blurred. He was sitting so, dreaming and wondering how true or how false it was that he had seen Julia Redmond come several times to his bedside during the early days of his illness here in the hospital. Then across his troubled mind suddenly came the words that he had heard her sing, and he used to recall them. The Red Cross nurse who so charitably sang in the hospital came to the wards and began her mission. One after another she sang familiar songs.

"How the poor devils must love it," Sabron thought, and he blessed her for charity.

How familiar was her voice! But that was only because he was so ill. But he began to wonder and to doubt and across the distance came the notes of the tune, the melody of the song that had haunted him for many months:

When He Sat Up in Bed He Was a Shadow.

God keep you safe, my love,
All through the night;
Rest close in his encircling arms
Until the light.
My heart is with you as I kneel to pray,
God keep you safe in his care
Good night! God keep you in his care Always.

Thick shadows creep like silent ghosts
About my head;
I lose myself in tender dreams
While overhead
The moon comes stealing through the Silver sickle gleaming 'mid the stars.

For I, though I am far away,
Feel safe and strong.
To trust you in this, dear love—and yet,
The night is long.
I say with sobbing breath the old fond Good night! Sweet dreams! God keep You everywhere!

When she had finished singing there were tears on the soldier's cheeks and he was not ashamed. Pitchoune, who remembered the tune as well as he, crept up to him and laid his head on his master's hand. Sabron had just time to wipe away the tears when the Duc de Tremont came in.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Reported Killed; But Lives.

Marquette, March 6.—Lieut. Albert Tundermark, Clintonville, is alive and well although reported killed in action in the February casualties. His brother, Charles Tundermark, of this city, received a letter from the lieutenant stating that he had been reported among the missing but was alive and well.

DINNER STORIES

Soldiers from the east are telling some curious stories of canals' love for tobacco. Dreamers and canals are passionately addicted to the weed, and can be made to do almost anything under its influence.

The driver carries a triangular piece of wood which is pierced at one point like a cigar holder. When he is in the boat's mouth, the cigar is kept then lit and pressed into the hole.

The camel immediately closes its eyes and puffs away through its mouth and nostrils. The cigar is constantly consumed. The driver, further, the nicotine appears to exercise a stimulating and refreshing effect upon the animal, so that he is ready to approach his smoke, it will plod on for many more miles after it.

A translator of the Bible into the New Guinea tongue wanted a proper term for the phrase, "Far be it from me to do this thing." He consulted a learned native, who replied: "I understand. We have the word in our language. May I speak to my mother-in-law before I will do this thing."

There is quite a difference between the blowhard and the glibulous talker. The blowhard is inflated with the exuberance of his own verbiage, and the other is verbose with the exuberance of his own inebriation.

Wet Soil Hope

Manitowoc, March 6.—In an address made to retail liquor dealers of this county, State President Gleason, Waukesha, advised the boys to stick to the finish and said where there was a state prohibition law would be declared unconstitutional within the next 30 days. He said the state funds for the legal fight against prohibition were materially added at the meeting held here.

Chemist Dangerously Ill.

Neenah, March 6.—Ernest Mahler, head chemist of the Kimberly-Clark company, and widely known in paper mill circles, is dangerously ill. His pneumonia is very severe. He has been summoned from California.

Tobacco Habit Easily Conquered

A New Yorker of wide experience has written a book telling how the tobacco habit may be easily and completely banished in three days without suffering. The author, Edward Woods, T.B.-31, State University, New York City, will mail his book free on request in plain wrapper. The nicotine poison is out of the system. Calmness, good digestion, normal sleep, memory, and a general gain in efficiency among the many benefits reported. Get rid of pipe, cigar, snuff or chewing tobacco. Write for the free book today. Know others this genuine advertisement.

For Itching Torture

There is one remedy that seldom fails to stop itching torture and relieve skin irritation and that makes the skin soft, clear and healthy.

Any druggist can supply you with Zemo, which generally overcomes all skin diseases. Eczema, itch, pimples, rashes, blackheads in most cases give way to Zemo. Frequently, minor blemishes disappear over night. Itching usually stops instantly. Zemo is a safe, antiseptic liquid, clean, easy to use and dependable. It costs only 35c; an extra large bottle, $1.00. It will not stain, is not greasy or sticky and is positively safe for tender, sensitive skin.

The E. W. Rose Co., Cleveland, O.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Easily and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Any one who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare, and really there is nothing better for coughs. Into a pint bottle, put 2½ ounces of Pinex, then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey or corn syrup. For every way, the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more effective and pleasant remedy—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will breathe the pleasant, thin out, and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known as a most reliable remedy for chest and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded.

The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Advertisement.

Milton Junction

Milton Junction, March 5.—The members of the S. D. church held a public reception at the church parlors, Sunday evening in honor of George Greenman, who has returned for a year's service overseas with the thirty-second division.

The pupils of the high school held a reception Saturday evening, in honor of Prof. J. Gabagan, who has resigned from the principalship of the high school and accepted a position in research work at Madison.

The Dadd farm, on the river road, and Mr. Scholl and family have moved to the Will Agnew farm, on the Clear Lake road.

Mrs. E. M. Butts, Delavan, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Butts.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kilder have rented their farm and will occupy the Alex. Paul residence, Madison avenue. Mrs. Cottrell and son are moving into the Stone residence, on the north side.

Charles Woodward and daughter, Annamarie, Deperre, were week-end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Thorpe and family.

Mrs. John Muller spent the week-end with Chicago relatives.

Pearl Gardner, Madison, accompanied Marion Hull home for a visit over Sunday.

Mrs. L. Stone is suffering from a stroke of paralysis.

Florence Ogden was a recent Chicago visitor.

Miss Olive Shadel was home from Madison over Sunday.

Brodhead News

Brodhead, March 5.—Pearl Lodge, No. 34, K. of P., gave a successful party Tuesday evening at the drug store. One hundred and twenty tickets were sold, and there was a number of spectators besides. Bass and Booth's orchestra of the Monroe furnished the music, and the supper was served by members of the lodge. The affair was a success socially and financially.

Meddies Will Hahn and C. W. Murphy were in Janesville, Tuesday. The London twins are ill with pneumonia.

Word comes from Fay McKenzie, at the Mercy hospital, Janesville, that he is doing nicely.

The Methodist girls' team of basketball players of Janesville will play at the Brodhead high school girls at the local gymnasium Friday evening. Albany high school and Brodhead high school second team will play a preliminary game.

Dr. Allan Taylor was a professional visitor at Janesville, Tuesday. Tuesday's storm brought about eight inches of snow.

Mrs. C. P. Mooney entertained the Wednesday club this afternoon.

SHARON

Sharon, March 4.—Miss Adeline Day returned to her home in Harvard Monday, after a two weeks' stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vesper.

Miss Helen Martin, county superintendent of schools, and Miss Bezon, state inspector, visited the Sharon school, Monday.

Ed. Perring, Beloit, called on Sharon friends, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bilyea attended the funeral of Clarence Bilyea at Wauwatosa, Monday.

Will Gile and Fred Hutchinson went to Janesville Monday to see Merlin Gile, who is a patient at the Mercy hospital.

Mrs. George Dowie and Miss Ada Henn were Harvard shoppers Monday.

Mrs. Clarence Lippett spent Monday in Janesville.

Mrs. Fred Herron, Clinton, visited her mother, Mrs. Nelson, Monday, and sang at the funeral of Mrs. Gene Parks.

Mrs. Curtis Besscker, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Besscker, returned to her home in Beloit Monday evening.

Word was received Monday by Ed. Smith of the death of his daughter, Gladys, at her home in Rockford, Ill. Mrs. Henry Biedict was born in Sharon and lived here until her marriage. She leaves a husband and three small children.

The fire department was called to the farm home of E. Schlipps, Monday evening, but the fire proved to be only a burning chimney and was under control before the department arrived.

A meeting of those interested in the centenary movement was held at the M. E. church, Monday evening. About forty were present.

The meeting was held after which the pastor, Rev. C. O. Potter, explained the unit system of the local church.

Each goal leader then met with workers on that goal for a short conference. This was followed by a social time, during which refreshments were served.

The funeral of Mrs. S. B. Parks, who died suddenly on a train at Calumet, while returning from a visit to her daughter in Rockford, was held from the M. E. church Monday afternoon. Rev. E. C. Potter officiating. Belle Parks was born in Little Falls, N. Y., in 1854, and came to Wisconsin when a girl. She was married to S. B. Parks, one daughter, Mabel, now Mrs. Bert Ryerson, was the M. E. church, the Royal Neighbors and the W. R. C. The two societies attended the funeral in a body.

LEYDEN

Leyden, March 5.—J. E. Boettcher, Madison, was a caller at Leyden, Monday.

Mrs. Jess Gilbert spent Monday and Tuesday in Stoughton.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wunder entertained at a dancing party Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Aurora Byrne were Sunday visitors at Frank Byrne's.

E. J. Reilly shipped a blooded calf to Sharon parties Monday.

J. Hanson moved today from the W. T. Shesler farm to the Fred Peuch farm in Porter.

Several from here attended the show at the Myers theatre Sunday night.

A number in this vicinity are suffering from severe colds.

Jess Gilbert and James Conway sold their tobacco this week.

BARKER'S CORNERS

Barker's Corners, March 5.—Mr. and Mrs. John Craig and family, Janesville, visited the first of the week at St. Simon's.

A large crowd attended Alfred Clough's auction, Wednesday.

Mrs. A. McDermott is home from Chicago, after spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Dilzer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Hemminger and son are home after spending the past week in Chicago with friends and relatives.

Too Fat?

A guaranteed weight reduction method; safe, pleasant. Brings slenderness, better health, happiness. Get small box of oil of kerosene (in capsules) at the drug store. Follow directions. You are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

Almost Died From Stomach Trouble

Mr. Campbell lost 65 pounds. Regained it, and tells how he got well.

"Before I started taking Milk's Emulsion, the doctor told me it wasn't any use, for I was going to die."

"But if you could see me now, you wouldn't think that there had ever been anything the matter with me. I commenced taking Milk's Emulsion, my health and strength. I don't look like the same man I did three years ago. I wish you could see what it has done for me and my family."

W. Z. Campbell, Carey, Ohio.

Thousands of people who "had to be careful with a cough or cold" have regained their health and strength. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

Thousands of people who "had to be careful with a cough or cold" have regained their health and strength. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

Thousands of people who "had to be careful with a cough or cold" have regained their health and strength. It is a truly wonderful remedy. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try it. It is a truly wonderful remedy.

WALWORTH

Walworth, March 5.—Fred Krohn, living west of town, was taken to the Harvard Cottage hospital, Monday. He has an infection in his face caused by using a new shaving brush.

Mr. and Mrs. August Walters, Miss Minnie Walters and Miss Marie Jurgens were Sunday guests at the August Schultz home, west of town. Mr. Walters and August Schultz went to Elkhorn, Tuesday.

August Walters, Sharon, has sold his farm to Herman Kruth.

Dr. F. E. Green was in Harvard, Friday.

The E. J. Watts family was in Lake Geneva, Sunday.

Carl Voss, Big Foot, Ill., took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. F. Weber, Sunday.

Mrs. Harry M. Johnson is in Los Angeles, Cal., visiting her uncle, Mr. Burdick. Her husband is in Los Angeles this week, singing with his company, the Royal Dragons.

Mr. J. Zavitz and wife, Harvard, were in town Monday.

Mrs. Charles McCabe and sister, Mrs. Bartlett, visited relatives in Tuttle Lake last week.

Mrs. E. J. Booth was in Milton last week.

The Helping Hand society held a tea at the home of Mrs. Jennie Godfrey, Thursday, realizing $1.10. They will meet with Mrs. W. R. Bonham, March 13.

George Walters, Albion is ill. He is a brother of E. A. Walters.

Miss Harriet Wilkinson, Big Foot, called here Saturday.

Mrs. Lee Hubbard has returned from a visit in Racine.

J. L. Voss and family are moving to the Mrs. Mary Hand residence.

Mrs. Nellie Burdwell, Harvard, visited Mrs. J. G. Hergensheimer, Monday.

P. L. Maxon and wife left Tuesday to visit relatives in Colorado.

J. M. Clark and family, Jansville, visited here last week on Main street.

Gerald Holland and wife are moving to a farm near Harvard.

Albert Ingalls has returned to his home in Clinton.

Frank Stupel has resigned his place with William Potter and will resume his old position as salesman for Scotten-Dillon Co., Detroit, Mich.

Owing to war conditions he has not been with the Detroit firm for the past year, but is the first man called back. He was with the firm four years. His territory is eastern Wisconsin.

Mrs. Victor Peters was pleasantly surprised Monday by the following ladies, who reminded her of her birthday: Mrs. Fred Kraig, Mrs. Alvina Northgate, Mrs. Clara Freeze, Mrs. Herman Freeze, Harvard; Mrs. Alvina Peters and Mrs. Frank Peters, Walworth; and Mrs. Lillian Cox, Kenosha.

Frank Rockhold has returned from his work at the military academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Huntly spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chappin.

O. L. Putnam and wife, Harvard, were in town Monday.

E. J. Booth at the Booth Drug Store is agent for the Gazette in Walworth. You can get a copy of the Gazette daily at his place. Call him up and have him reserve a copy for you every day.

Banker Dies.

Fond du Lac, March 6.—Adolph G. Beshau, 79, well known banker and brewer died Wednesday.

Get the habit of reading the Classified Ads.

ALBANY

Albany, March 4.—Arthur Flint, who is working in Rockford, spent the week-end at the home of his parents. Ira Christ, Hudson, was an over Sunday visitor at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Paschenda.

Frank Chinn, Bruce, visited his parents here last Thursday and Friday. He and his wife and baby were called here on account of the serious illness of Mr. Chinn's mother, Mrs. R. C. Root. Mrs. Chinn and baby will remain indefinitely.

The three-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Coleman was buried Sunday afternoon. The little girl leaves one sister, one brother, and the father and mother.

C. M. Dixon has taken possession of the clothing store recently purchased from Croake and Partridge.

Arthur Partridge spent Saturday and Sunday with his wife, who recently underwent an operation in the Madison hospital. She is convalescing nicely. Her sister, Mrs. H. C. Atherton, spent from Thursday until Saturday with her.

Claude Whipple and family moved Saturday from the Perry house owned by Mrs. Davidson to the new residence near the school house.

W. R. Lewis spent Wednesday in Madison.

George Gelbach visited his family a part of last week.

Miss Effie Hein, Madison, visited at home last week.

L. O. Anderson was in Brodhead between trains last Wednesday morning.

John Gillette, Belleville, visited his children here last week.

Wilford Francis, Jansville, visited relatives here the first of last week.

Mrs. F. E. Graves departed Saturday for Jansville for a few days' visit with her daughter and from there will return to her home at Selby, South Dakota.

Word has been received from Lorain Hulbert that he has left California and is now at Crookston, Minn., looking after his farming interests.

J. T. Gravenor and family moved last week into the Harrington residence on Main street. Earl Flint moved up into the old Free Methodist parsonage.

Frank Broderick, Jansville, visited relatives here last Wednesday.

RICHMOND

Richmond, March 5.—March 1 brings the usual routine of moving.

Frank Behlman has moved to the S. A. Hulse farm, Mr. Zabel going to the place he vacated. A. Muns has gone to a farm near Palmyra; Herman Grayler to the Owen Rye tenant house; Mr. Flebrant to the C. G. Knilians' farm; and Martin Densterebeck has moved on the Plinew farm, which he purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rosenbergs are here from Delavan, caring for the J. D. Clark family, who are all ill with influenza. There is a large number of cases here.

Several from here attended the Farmers' Institute in Whitewater, on Thursday and Friday.

C. G. Knilians and family have moved to their new home in Delavan.

Miss Esther Borklund is assisting Mrs. S. A. Hulse, Whitewater, for a few days.

Miss Keller who teaches in district No. 5, is ill with influenza, and the school is closed.

W. L. Knilians lost a registered Holstein cow. He had a number of cows dehorned, and one died during the night from loss of blood.

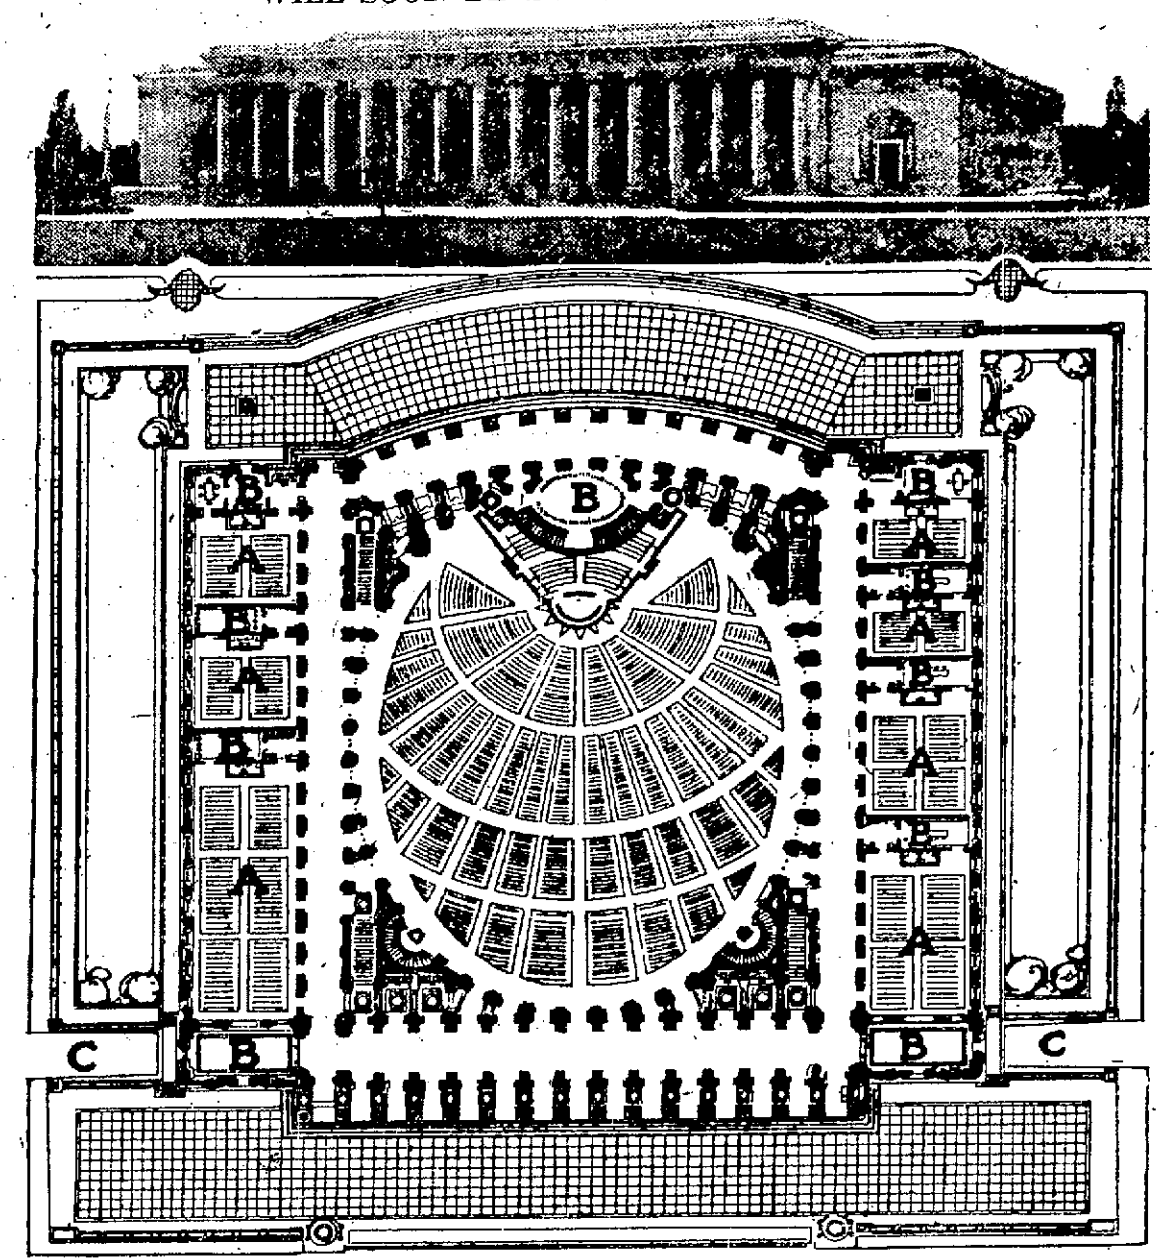

The three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wendorf, passed away. Tuesday after a brief illness of pneumonia, following influenza. The father, is seriously ill, and the mother is recovering.

The annual dinner of the Country Efficiency club will be held Thursday at Marshall Shimmuns'. A good program is being prepared, as well as a tempting menu.

Ed. Larkin returned from France, Saturday. He was in the hospital for three months, having been wounded from a machine gun bullet.

Mr. and Mrs. Aven Ewe and son spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Milton Junction.

MEMORIAL TEMPLE, MONUMENT TO THE MEN OF '17 AND '76. WILL SOON BE ERECTED IN THE NATIONAL CAPITAL

George Washington Memorial building (above) and floor plan of the memorial, with auditorium seating 7,000 in center. (A) Assembly rooms for various national organizations. (B) Reception rooms. (C) Carriage passage through building.

Plans are going forward for the erection soon in the national capital of the George Washington Memorial building, which can be utilized as a joint monument to the fighting men of '17 and '76. Congress has appropriated a site and the sum of $350,000 has been raised by subscription. A prominent feature of the building will be an immense auditorium, which will seat 7,000 people.

SHARON

Sharon, March 5.—F. M. Willey and H. P. Larsen were business visitors in Chicago, Tuesday.

The standard Bearers held their regular meeting at the M. E. church, Tuesday evening. In spite of the storm a fair sized crowd was present.

After the meeting refreshments were served.

W. D. Burton was a Chicago visitor, Monday.

J. W. Hayes returned to Chadron, Neb., where he was called by the death of his brother.

Mrs. Martin Kethoefer returned home, Monday from Madison, where she has been visiting her daughter, Alma, and son, Leon, both students at the university.

Hugh Ruchlinman returned to his work as traveling salesman for the Chicago Portrait company, Monday, after an over Sunday visit with his

Voice of the People

To the Editor:—Jansville should be decidedly progressive. We should have a Social Welfare League. This league, to develop, should be received nicely and aided. It would employ:

1. A superintendent of community welfare.
2. Staff officers.
3. Office interviewer and clerk.
4. Director.
5. Visiting nurse.
6. Probation officer.
7. Police matron.
8. Supervisor for blind and widows' pensions.

A trained social worker should serve as secretary to the Red Cross and the Commercial club.

Two stenographers. There should be three settlement houses (or social centers) and in each should be a dispensary, or clinic, a kindergarten and all the other clubs and classes that are part of a settlement. There should be a resident worker in each, and many volunteer workers.

When Jansville fixed a salary of one hundred dollars a year for a probation officer she made herself markedly ridiculous. We are no longer a backwater town. We have arrived—numerically, but alas! we are woefully behind the times.

A real honest-to-goodness probation officer would investigate and catch Allan Pierce's fifteen hundred dollars bail for four dollars' worth of beer! Meantime what of Allan Pierce's family? Time was when Allan Pierce was a city employe and accounted a good man.

Poor Jansville! Where is your justice? Where is your foresight? How do you plan for your poor residents?

A social settlement over near the Grant school, another near the Fourth ward school, and a third settlement down in Spring Brook. That is the crying need of Jansville.

True, we have a very active Women's Federation, but when they work hard to perfect something beneficial to Jansville they are made to see it is not their place—as with the probation officer.

The rest room is a wonderful thing for Jansville, thanks to the Women's club. They should get busy NOW and rent a house in Spring Brook for a settlement where the need arises, get larger quarters. Have three rooms and a bath for the resident and turn the rest over to the classes. Make it non-sectarian. What Hull House did for Chicago. West side the Spring Brook settlement might (and could) do for Jansville.

Social work is a calling, a vocation. To be a truant officer one must not measure the work by the salary received. So it is with settlement workers, with welfare nurses, with social investigators. Yet Jansville would hold up one hundred dollars a year to a probation officer. When Jansville "wakes from her dream" and looks out, not in, we may be able to be a civilized and progressive community. But will that be in time, or eternity. Mrs. W. J. Wright.

They should get busy NOW and rent a house in Spring Brook for a settlement where the need arises, get larger quarters. Have three rooms and a bath for the resident and turn the rest over to the classes. Make it non-sectarian. What Hull House did for Chicago. West side the Spring Brook settlement might (and could) do for Jansville.

Social work is a calling, a vocation. To be a truant officer one must not measure the work by the salary received. So it is with settlement workers, with welfare nurses, with social investigators. Yet Jansville would hold up one hundred dollars a year to a probation officer. When Jansville "wakes from her dream" and looks out, not in, we may be able to be a civilized and progressive community. But will that be in time, or eternity. Mrs. W. J. Wright.

They should get busy NOW and rent a house in Spring Brook for a settlement where the need arises, get larger quarters. Have three rooms and a bath for the resident and turn the rest over to the classes. Make it non-sectarian. What Hull House did for Chicago. West side the Spring Brook settlement might (and could) do for Jansville.

Social work is a calling, a vocation. To be a truant officer one must not measure the work by the salary received. So it is with settlement workers, with welfare nurses, with social investigators. Yet Jansville would hold up one hundred dollars a year to a probation officer. When Jansville "wakes from her dream" and looks out, not in, we may be able to be a civilized and progressive community. But will that be in time, or eternity. Mrs. W. J. Wright.

They should get busy NOW and rent a house in Spring Brook for a settlement where the need arises, get larger quarters. Have three rooms and a bath for the resident and turn the rest over to the classes. Make it non-sectarian. What Hull House did for Chicago. West side the Spring Brook settlement might (and could) do for Jansville.

Social work is a calling, a vocation. To be a truant officer one must not measure the work by the salary received. So it is with settlement workers, with welfare nurses, with social investigators. Yet Jansville would hold up one hundred dollars a year to a probation officer. When Jansville "wakes from her dream" and looks out, not in, we may be able to be a civilized and progressive community. But will that be in time, or eternity. Mrs. W. J. Wright.

They should get busy NOW and rent a house in Spring Brook for a settlement where the need arises, get larger quarters. Have three rooms and a bath for the resident and turn the rest over to the classes. Make it non-sectarian. What Hull House did for Chicago. West side the Spring Brook settlement might (and could) do for Jansville.

Social work is a calling, a vocation. To be a truant officer one must not measure the work by the salary received. So it is with settlement workers, with welfare nurses, with social investigators. Yet Jansville would hold up one hundred dollars a year to a probation officer. When Jansville "wakes from her dream" and looks out, not in, we may be able to be a civilized and progressive community. But will that be in time, or eternity. Mrs. W. J. Wright.

They should get busy NOW and rent a house in Spring Brook for a settlement where the need arises, get larger quarters. Have three rooms and a bath for the resident and turn the rest over to the classes. Make it non-sectarian. What Hull House did for Chicago. West side the Spring Brook settlement might (and could) do for Jansville.

Social work is a calling, a vocation. To be a truant officer one must not measure the work by the salary received. So it is with settlement workers, with welfare nurses, with social investigators. Yet Jansville would hold up one hundred dollars a year to a probation officer. When Jansville "wakes from her dream" and looks out, not in, we may be able to be a civilized and progressive community. But will that be in time, or eternity. Mrs. W. J. Wright.

They should get busy NOW and rent a house in Spring Brook for a settlement where the need arises, get larger quarters. Have three rooms and a bath for the resident and turn the rest over to the classes. Make it non-sectarian. What Hull House did for Chicago. West side the Spring Brook settlement might (and could) do for Jansville.

Social work is a calling, a vocation. To be a truant officer one must not measure the work by the salary received. So it is with settlement workers, with welfare nurses, with social investigators. Yet Jansville would hold up one hundred dollars a year to a probation officer. When Jansville "wakes from her dream" and looks out, not in, we may be able to be a civilized and progressive community. But will that be in time, or eternity. Mrs. W. J. Wright.

CENTER

Center, March 5.—The heaviest snowfall of the winter came Tuesday, covering the earth with a blanket which will be a great advantage to the farm land, as the plowless rest, and the heavy snow has been the driest winter known in many years.

Rock county farms continue to be changing hands. The latest deal consummated is that of Mrs. O. C. Long, a Madison, Baltimore, Md., who has the price of $200 per acre. Center friends of Mrs. Long and family are glad to note that they will remain in their old home indefinitely.

Mrs. Elmer Brooks, Evansville, was a week-end visitor with her friend, Mrs. Will Dixon.

Mrs. Mae Fuller has returned from a month's stay with Earl and Mary's church in Jansville, occurred the marriage of James S. Roberts, Jr., one of Center's most esteemed young men, and Miss Theresa Rudersdorf of Jansville. After the ceremony, a breakfast was served to the wedding party at the Myers hotel. The happy couple left immediately on a short honeymoon trip and on returning will go to housekeeping on the George Yeomans farm.

Mrs. Julius Kopplin and daughter, Mrs. Mary Nightengale, returned Wednesday from Des Moines, Iowa, where they went to visit their son and brother, Priv. Otto Kopplin, who was severely wounded in France on the same day and almost the same hour of the signing of the armistice and turning from the front lines, he has been in a New York hospital where he was obliged to have his leg amputated. Recently he was sent to the hospital at Des Moines for further treatment.

E. C. Davies and Rudolph Martin attended the threshermen's convention which convened at Madison last week.

Will Nightengale and family moved from near Evansville to the C. M. Pelland farm Monday. Mr. Pelland and family have moved to Footville to reside for the present.

C. A. Rosa is acting in the capacity of jurymen for the town of Center for the spring term of court.

There are a few recent sales of tobacco, among which are those of C. A. Rosa, Arthur Schroeder, H. Katz, Sr., and F. Davis.

Mrs. John Weisenberg attended a funeral in Monroe last week.

LA PRAIRIE

La Prairie, March 4.—E. S. Smith and Mrs. W. Day received word Friday of the death of their uncle, William Pollansbee, Charles City, Ia.

Miss Fannie Muns, Jansville, visited at Norman Howard's, Sunday.

Harold Smith, who attends Milton college, spent Sunday at the parental home.

Russell Clarke, who has been suffering from an attack of influenza and pleurisy, is slowly improving. Other members of the family who are ill, are also improving. Mrs. Belle Vane, Jansville, is the nurse in attendance.

Miss Geo. McCarthy was unable to attend to her school duties Monday on account of a severe cold.

Mrs. Ray Hale and little daughter are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradford, Jansville.

Mrs. Forrester, Jansville, who has been caring for Mrs. Edwin Martin during an attack of influenza, returned to Jansville Saturday.

The Granges will meet at the hall, Tuesday evening, March 11. After the meeting there will be dancing and a picnic supper will be served.

Baby Accidentally Shot.—Amelia Lubowicz, four years old, was accidentally shot and killed when her brother, 7 years old, secured a revolver and pulled the trigger.

LOOK!

Men's and Boys' $1.00 and $1.25 Tennis Shoes and Oxfords, first quality in white and black, help yourself at per pair

75c

ANOTHER SLASH IN PRICES ON THE WILKINS & SON GENERAL STOCK

LOOK!

One large store filled with Women's Shoes and Oxfords, broken lines and sizes but all high grade shoes, going at per pair

$1.25

STORE CLOSED ALL DAY FRIDAY TO DO THE SLASHING

Remember this means the final wind up of the Wilkins & Son entire stock, including fixtures. Mr. Wilkins has been here too long to allow anything to be misrepresented in any way and the following prices quoted below mean exactly what they say and you will find everything as represented. The store opens again Saturday, March 8th, 8 a. m. sharp. You will find the Entire Stock Slashed in price to such an extent that you will be amazed!

JUST A WORD TO PEOPLE LIVING IN JANSVILLE AND BELOIT and surrounding towns—if you do not feel you have been well repaid by coming, stop at the desk and say so and we will gladly pay your expenses. Train service is fine, leaving Jansville at 1:15 P. M., returning at 6 o'clock in the evening. It will do us good to see you and we will see to it that we DO YOU GOOD BEFORE YOU GET AWAY.—A. J. CLEVELAND.

WE MAY POSSIBLY HOLD AUCTIONS AFTERNOOONS OF EACH DAY

HOW DO THESE PRICES SOUND ON DRY GOODS?

Calico, at per yard	11c
Poplins, all colors, per yard	32c
Cotton Gaberdine, per yard	38c
Sateens, per yard	29c
Gray Outing, per yard	19c
Unbleached Cotton Flannel, per yard	29c
Black Messaline, per yard	95c
Cretone, per yard	26c
Mercerized Damask, per yard	53c
Black Wool Serge, per yard	85c
Lawns and Dimities in all colors going at per yard	19c, for your choice.
Best Turkish Toweling, per yard	31c
Bleached Sheeting, per yard	59c

TOILET ARTICLES

of all kinds. There is a nice line to select from and you can have your choice at just what it cost us. Will gladly show you bill for same.

HOW DO THESE PRICES LOOK?

Men's $2.25 Fleece Union Suits	$1.45
Men's $1.25 Fleece Underwear	65c
Boys' 75 Fleece Underwear	42c
Men's 2-piece Summer Underwear	35c
Men's $1.50 and $1.75 Union Suits	95c
Men's $2.00 Union Suits	$1.25
Men's $3.00 Pants	$1.95
Boys' Knee Pants	35c
Men's $2.25 Overalls at	$1.65
Men's Best Work Shirts	79c
Men's $1.50 Heavy Wool Sox	87c
Men's $1.00 Heavy Wool Sox	73c

LADIES' AND MISSES' COATS: We have only a few but they are all new this season's coats. We are going to sell them Saturday—There are 10 Ladies', 7 Misses' and 5 Children's Coats. They will be sold so cheap you will be sorry if you are not here. If you are going to need a coat for next season better be on hand Saturday.

Men's 75c Heavy Wool Sox	53c
Men's 65c Fine Cassimere Hose	39c
Men's 50c Silk Lisle Hose	35c
Men's 35c Silk Lisle Hose	27c

PIPE SPECIALS

50c Pipes going at	29c
25c and 35c Pipes going at	19c

SHOES

Men's $4.50 and $5.00 Dress Shoes	$3.45
Men's $3.00 Dress Shoes	$2.95
Men's $4.00 and $4.50 Work Shoes	$3.25
Men's $3.50 Work Shoes	$2.85
Men's $3.00 Work Shoes	$2.25
Boys' $2.50 and $3.00 Shoes	$1.95
Men's $2.50 and $3.00 All Felt Shoes	$1.75
Ladies' $4.00 Oxfords going at	$2.95
Ladies' $3.00 Oxfords going at	$2.25
Ladies' $2.50 Oxfords going at	$1.85

These are all New Spring Goods

ALL WHITE SHOES AND OXFORDS AT JUST HALF PRICE.

All Children's Shoes at less than cost.
Men's $1.25 Rubbers, per pair	95c
Boys' $1.10 Heavy Rubbers, per pair	85c
Youths' 90c Heavy Rubbers, per pair	70c
Men's Heavy 1-buckle Artics going at	95c
4-buckle All Rubber Artics, best quality, going at	$2.95
Men's $5.50 Best Rubber Boots made, going at	$4.25
Mishwaukee Ball Brand Felt Boots and Rubbers, combination, at	$3.45

$10.00 Mackinaws at	$5.95
$8.50 Mackinaws at	$4.25
A few Men's Women's and Children's Rain Coats at half what they are worth.
Ribbons, Laces and Embroideries at a fraction of their real worth. Be sure and look them over.
Ladies' $2.50 and $2.75 House Dresses	$2.10
Ladies' $2.00 Aprons going at	$1.55
Ladies' $1.75 Aprons going at	$1.45
Ladies' $1.50 Aprons going at	$1.19

GROCERIES

20c cans Peas, 2 cans for.....	25c
20c Corn, 2 cans for.....	25c
Large 2-lb. can Best Pork and Beans with tomato sauce.....	13c; 2 for 25c
Large can 25c Salmon at.....	17c
2 cans of Best Tomatoes for.....	25c
Large 3-lb. can Sauerkraut going at.....	15c
Large 3-lb. can Sweet Potatoes going at.....	15c
Large 3-lb. can Hominy going at.....	12c
18c Red Kidney Beans at.....	14c
18c can Wax Beans at.....	14c
Large 3-lb. can Best Pumpkin.....	13c; 2 for 25c
6 large boxes best Safety Matches going at.....	28c
25c bottle of Snyder's and Hinz's Tomato Catsup and Chili Sauce, choice per bottle for.....	15c
30c jar Sweet Pickles, per jar.....	23c
Fine Spinach at per can.....	15c
60c Mixed Tea, anyone liking a fine Oiling Black Tea will be more than pleased with this special while it lasts, at per pound.....	38c
Extra Fine English Walnut Meats, going at per pound.....	75c
35c lb. Mixed Nuts going at per lb.....	18c

Uncle Sam HELPING THE Hen

Uncle Sam's New Up-to-Date Poultry
Plant—Poultry (Laying)
House, and Poultry Runs

What the National Government Is Doing To Boost Egg and Poultry Production - A Model Chicken Farm Devoted To Investigation and Experiment-Scientific Feeding of Chicks.

By Waldon Fawcett.

AS the egg famine hit you? Do you try the "selects" and "specials" and "near-by" and "strictly fresh" eggs of the town and city markets and yet fail to find the kind of eggs that mother used to serve? And, worst of all, do you pay 40 or 50 or 60 or even 70 cents a dozen, according to your place of residence, for the precious poultry products and even then feel no assurance that you are getting the egg quality and freshness that such prices ought to warrant?

Never mind, though, Uncle Sam is coming to rescue. The United States Government is going to spend more than $35,000 this next year in boosting egg and poultry production—increasing quantity as well as improving quality. Of course this Federal aid for the hen is not going to dissipate all our troubles at once, but it will ultimately go far toward that end. This is attested by what has already been accomplished by the "Poultry Investigations" of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, for this scheme for encouraging our feathered servants is not a brand-new idea. It was begun in a small way half a dozen years ago and has since been gathering headway until in this year of a feverish egg market it bursts forth as one of the foremost activities of the Government.

Using Thermograph
(for Recording Temperature)

It may seem a far cry from the researches of Uncle Sam's poultry experts to the breakfast table of the everyday citizen but the Government hopes to bring them within shouting distance of each other through its missionary work in behalf of the improvement of the market egg. The Federal sleuths are following the market egg on its journey from the farm, via the country store, the commission merchant, and the city market to its final destination in the urban home and they are trying out all possible means and mediums for the improvement of the oft-maligned egg.

Where the inventor has a workshop or the scientist a laboratory in which to conduct his experiments and work out his ideas, Uncle Sam's poultry experts have a model poultry farm where there is a permanent population of upward of two thousand head of poultry and where 1,200 to 1,800 chicks are hatched every year. All this poultry "proving ground," which is located at a favorable site near the town of Beltsville, Maryland, close to the Potomac river, is kept on each individual bird by means of an identification tag attached to the leg and thus the experts are enabled to compare different branches of the feathered family—for instance to contrast the incubator chick with its sister that has been ushered into the world in the good-old-fashioned way.

The Federal Poultry Farm.

Without this model poultry farm

One of Uncle Sam's Prize Specimens
(Minorca)

the Government could not have carried on the investigation of poultry feeding upon which the experts have been engaged for some time since the outcome of which will be of value to every person who raises poultry. The plan followed in making a study of the effect of food upon poultry is to select birds and place them in colony houses where they are fed rationed food that enable comparisons to be made. Incidentally, the poultry sharps in the employ of the Government are endeavoring to find out just what sort of a menu is best for fattening chickens for market and how much it costs to thus plump up a bird.

Uncle Sam's Chosen Breed.

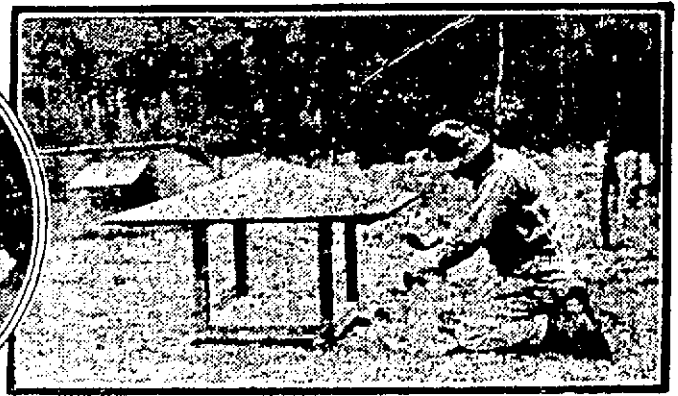

It may be well to mention for the benefit of readers who have a penchant for poultry raising that the breeds kept at Uncle Sam's poultry yard are those which are commonly regarded as the most valuable for the farm or the suburban lot, namely Plymouth Rocks, White Wyandottes, Rhode Island Reds, Buff Orpingtons, etc., etc. There is also a flock of White Leghorns and Buff Leghorns. The feathered population of the poultry farm at Beltsville gives eloquent proof that it is possible to have numbers of chickens all of which will prove good "winter layers." A considerable number of Rhode Island Reds have averaged over 150 eggs for the year. Nature favors and nothing less, Uncle Sam's poultry experts were termed by some persons when it began to be whispered about some since that the wizards at the Beltsville farm were attempting, by virtue of a simple surgical operation, to produce a crowless rooster. As a matter of fact the suggestion for putting the soft pedal on the rooster by the removal of a vocal cord came from an outsider and was referred to Uncle Sam's "poultry annex" for what it was worth. In simple justice be it said,

A New Arrival!

Placing Chicken Feed in Hopper
(for Hoppers)

That all Uncle Sam's poultry experiments are of a thoroughly practical character. There are no "high brow" technical studies unless such research work has direct bearing upon the solution of a practical problem.

New Wrinkles in Poultry Paraphernalia.

But for all that Uncle Sam is aiming to be so intensely practical in his object lesson poultry raising there is no denying the fact that he has introduced a number of new wrinkles in the industry. For example not only has the type of "colony house" that is employed at Beltsville as a chicken habitation been specially designed but it is mounted upon runners which allow it to be readily moved from place to place. The reason for this is that Uncle Sam is making a study of the best locations for poultry shelters under varying conditions.

The Government also goes to extremes in the matter of keeping close watch on all the conditions that have to do with the health and laying ability of the birds. All the chicks in Uncle Sam's flock are exponents of the fresh air cult, being practically raised out of doors and a good many of them enjoying free range, but that does not mean that the Federal poultry fanciers do not have weather eyes for changes of temperature and climatic conditions that might exert influence upon the poultry. To this end there are stationed throughout the poultry plant, thermographs which mechanically trace a record on paper of all the temperature changes during twenty-four hours. Not only are these glorified thermometers installed in the poultry houses but they do service in the open poultry yard, being installed in locked boxes sheltered in sunny pavilions.

In his present-day effort to help the hen Uncle Sam is giving a trial to all the mechanical devices that are designed to play a part in poultry farming. Incubators, for one thing, are coming in for a deal of attention and when I visited the Beltsville farm no less than eight different types of incubators were in operation in the incubator cellar. Various styles of trap nests are being tried, out and up-to-date feed hoppers and water pans are used in tiny shelter houses that look like miniature Chinese pagodas.

And all Uncle Sam's poultry experiments are of a thoroughly practical character. There are no "high brow" technical studies unless such research work has direct bearing upon the solution of a practical problem.

tender shoots for the young chick when other green food is unavailable and various standard types of brooders are given an opportunity to show what they can do in conserving the feathered population.

Making the Chicks Select Their Food.

For some of the activities incident to the Federal campaign for better poultry, ordinary poultry equipment has to be used in a manner very different from what it is employed by the average man who keeps chickens as a source of pleasure or profit. For example in some of the chicken runs at Beltsville the visitor notes a surprising number of food hoppers or feeding troughs. It looks like a scaled effort to make kormands of the chicks. As a matter of fact it is merely an ingenious way of making the birds tell what sort of food they like best.

In the respective hoppers are placed equal quantities of corn, oats, bran, middlings and other standard articles of poultry diet. At the end of a test period the amount of each class of feed remaining is measured and by this means the poultry experts are able to gauge pretty accurately what sort of food is preferred by their charges.

Ably assisting the Government in bringing about an era of better conditions in the poultry industry are the Boys and Girls' Poultry Clubs which are being organized under the auspices of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, in order to arouse an interest in poultry on the part of the farm boys and girls. As yet Uncle Sam has had opportunity to promote the organization of these clubs in only six states—namely, in Kentucky, Tennessee, North and South Carolina, Virginia and Georgia—but already there are in flourishing condition a total of 226 clubs enrolling in the aggregate 3,722 members. The idea is to be extended to other States and in time the whole country will doubtless be bespattered with juvenile poultry clubs, just as the boys' corn clubs have become an institution in the "corn belt." All of which goes to prove that the hen is coming into her own as a dependable as well as a useful member of the community instead of being alternately cajoled and berated after a fashion to try any tem-

ASHCRAFT'S ANNUAL MARCH SALE OF FURNITURE

Brighten Up the Dining Room

The dining room should be one of the most cheerful rooms in the home; now is the time to brighten it up with new pieces from this March Sale at money saving prices.

Any of these pieces will be sold at March Sale prices, held until you want them and then delivered. If you are going to need furniture any time within the next six months the time to buy is NOW.

Bargains in Buffets

Regular value, $33.00;	$26.40
sale price
Regular value, $38.00;	$30.40
sale price
Regular value, $50.00;	$40.00
sale price
Regular value, $47.50;	$35.00
sale price
Regular value, $45.00;	$36.00
sale price
Regular value, $52.00;	$41.60
sale price
Regular value, $55.00;	$44.00
sale price

Special Values in Chair Sets

Variety of Finishes, Some With Cane Backs

Regular $26.00,	$20.80	Regular $20.00,	$16.00
sale price		sale price
Regular $30.00,	$24.00	Regular $24.50,	$24.40
sale price		sale price
Regular $36.00,	$28.00	Regular $40.00,	$32.00
sale price		sale price
Regular $60.00,	$48.00	Regular $28.50,	$22.50
sale price		sale price
Regular $40.00,	$32.00	Individual Chair, $4.00 value,	$3.20
sale price		sale price
Regular $33.00,	$26.40	Individual Chair, $7.35 value,	$5.90
sale price		sale price

Tables For The Dining Room

We Feature the Nationally Known Hanson Table, Made in Janesville. Some Have Valsparred Tops

Regular $58.00,	$46.40	Regular $23.00,	$18.40
sale price		sale price
Regular $38.00,	$30.40	Regular $50.00,	$40.00
sale price		sale price
Regular $32.00,	$25.60
sale price

SPECIAL WALNUT DINING ROOM SET BARGAINS

Table, regular $65.00,	$52.00
sale price
Arm Chair, regular $17.50,	$14.00
sale price
Six Dining Chairs, regular $75.00,	$60.00
sale price
Buffet, regular $100.00,	$80.00
sale price
Total value for above set, $195.00;	$156.00
sale price

A saving to you of $39.00.

Come in and see the beautiful furniture on sale. There are three broad floors full of furniture. You can't see it all in our windows or on the first floor. Our stock is most complete.

Furniture & Undertaking

W. H. ASHCRAFT

114 W. Milw. St.

